and Brotherhood, we feel, like charity, should begin at home -- to cement relationships among members of our own Faith, before attempting to promote understanding with other religions, colors and nationalities. Like a legal action brought in a court of equity, we want to face our readers with clean hands so we may proceed to the subject of next week's column, which should clear the air of a series grievance being committed against us by Mrs. Willa Kohn, wife of Cantor Joseph Kohn.

Meanwhile, may we suggest: TO ERR IS HUMAN, TO FORGIVE, etc.

HADASSAH

can Jewish Organizations and honorary president of the American Jewish Congress, cited factors that intensify reactionary tendencies in the West German republic. These, he said, include the widespread belief in Europe that Germany has been abandoned by the United States which is now seemingly concentrating on Asia.

Dr. Prinz, once a prominent spiritual leader in Berlin, was principal speaker at the banquet session which closed the Hadassah's mid-winter conference at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. More than 200 leaders, representing 318,000 members throughout the United States and Puerto Rico, participated in the three-day conference.

Describing the German National Democratic Party, Dr. Prinz said that its two leaders, Thielen and von Thadden, "are very dangerous men" even though "neither of them was a Nazi."

The party, he said, is trying to rally surviving followers of Hitler, the discontended middle classes, and the "angry young men" in a rust.

At another session, Mrs. Siegfried Kramarsky, national chairman of the Hadassah Medical Organization Committee in the U.S., reported a $172,000 grant from the U.S. Institute of Health at Bethesda, Md., for the establishment in Israel of a dialysis machine, a device for the treatment of kidney disease.
