VINCE LOMBARDO ORK AT TROP.

The smooth musical sounds of Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians add a sweet beat to the Strip here Fri. (Feb 17) when the venerable organization opens a six-week engagement in the Blue Room of Hotel Tropicana.

Staging its second outing in the Trop night spot, the veteran musical team will add to the lineup of talent that has kept the Royal Canadians capering for several decades. Singer Betty Robertson. Alternating with the Ca-nucks during the first three weeks will be an exciting musical Revue, "Get It On," which will star Kathy Kersh former wife of Vince Edwards, and Mark Terry, singer-actor-recording artist.

Miss Kersh, who has an extensive list of screen and TV credits, beauty titles and nightclub dates, and Terry will be the singing stars of the Jon Gregory production, which also will include three female dancers.

Meanwhile, La Fontaine lounge features the Mafalda Duo from Feb. 17 through Feb. 26, with Page Cavanaugh set to return Feb. 27. Julian and Albert Foorman are back from vacation and again established as part of the furniture in the Gourmet Room.
