

"NEWS A-GO-GO"
Reva Schwartz

Wedding bells will be ringing in March for Mel Weber, son of Mabel and George Weber. The bride-to-be is Pamela Murray of L. A.

Lil Meyers is well and back in circulation after surgery. Ditto for Mildred Fullman, and both wish to thank their friends for their many cards and good wishes.

Who can be more delighted first-time grandparents? Like Helen and Herman Heimberg, for instance...it's a little girl born to their children Rosalyn and Tom Heimberg of Oakland. Tom plays the viola with the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra. Mazel Toy!

Visiting her daughter, Dorothe Koren, is Rose Mushkin of Omaha, Nebraska.

Bernice and Bill Marin are home again after their two week vacation in Acapulco. The fact that Bernice fell from the ramp as they landed there did not seem to deter them from a fun-filled holiday.

Get-Well wishes to Lou Davidson, also known as the jai-alai king.

Be sure you set aside the evening of March 2nd for a great treat. The well-known Howard da Silva will appear at the Coliseum in Caesars Palace to present "An Evening With Sholem Aleichem". Tickets are 2.50 and are available at the Temple Sunday mornings, or by calling Susan Frey at 382-3671. Proceeds will go toward the Torah Fund of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America to train young men and women attending the Teachers Institute.

Good news for all those who have been waiting for Weight Watchers to accommodate them in the evening. Starting Tuesday, March 7, Weight Watchers will also meet at 8:30 PM weekly! Suite 1112, Thunderbird Hotel, same place as regular Tuesday 1 P.M. classes. If you wish any further information, please call 734-1616.

Girls, girls, new, tiny, beautiful ones..... Our congratulations to Irene and Gil Schwartz on their latest arrival, and to Marilyn and Ash Resnick on their latest arrival.

Shirley Kravitz was matron of honor and Lavel was best man at the wedding of good friends from Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cella, who came in just for the happy occasion. Meanwhile the Kravitz clan have been whirling around town squiring the Irving Finkels of Wilmington, Delaware who were here to visit.

Lauri Engel gets to blow out the candles on her birthday cake this week. Many happy returns.

We weren't there, but if Art Lurie says he hit a hole in one - that's what happened on the 4th hole of the D. I. course.

Archie Marshall is about to open a branch of his Desert Lawn and Patio Shop, 1214 So. Main. The new location to be known as Decorator Shop, featuring exclusive items of lawn furniture, will be located in Somerset Shopping Center.

Barney Glazer's "HOLLYWOOD HOTLINE"

The tastes of persons who subscribe to movie fan magazines vary as widely as the tastes of those who attend movies.

I asked the West Coast editors of two magazines which stars invite stories from writers.

Marilyn Beck, West Coast Editor of Sterling Group, Inc., admitted her publications lean towards the young generation. She named:

The Monkees, Stephanie Powers, Barbara Parkins and Chris George. She said that among the more mature actors Liz Taylor and Frank Sinatra are always readable and that Brian Keith has been picking up steam.

Nancy Anderson, West Coast Editor of Photoplay, explained that her magazine claims an average reader of more than 25 years of age. Therefore, she encourages writers to submit stories about the mature actor. However, her list is dotted generously with youngsters.

Surprisingly enough, Nancy said that Barbara Stanwyck is now hot copy. For this, I'm sure that millions join me in saying, "Hallelujah." Barbara is like classical music drowning in the sea of rock'n' roll and it's about time someone threw her something heavier than a straw.

Miss Anderson's list includes: Elvis Presley, John Wayne, Paul Newman, Julie Andrews, Andy Williams and Rock Hudson. She said it's difficult getting something new about Rock and that Elizabeth Taylor's reading interest has somewhat tarnished.

When Nancy ran a story about Andy Williams, his wife and children, it proved to be the most popular story in that and many previous issues. Obviously, Photoplay readers love family chronicles.

Among the younger crowd, Photoplay lists these at the top of their demands: Annette Funicello, the Lennon Sisters, Peyton Placers and Connie Stevens.

GLAZED BITS -- A Negro high school student refuses to attend classes on Jewish holidays. Asked, "Are you Jewish?" he replied, "No, but I'm in sympathy with the movement".....Sam Levenson explains the difference between yesteryear's and today's Yiddish momma. "My mother would always say, "What good will come of it?" Today's mod mother shrugs and says, "What harm will it do?"

Buddy Hackett's description of the Johnny Carson show, "Where else can a Jewish boy go for confession?"
