

"NEWS A-GO-GO"
Reva Schwartz

Our sincere condolences to Faye Berger and sons Arthur, Irving and Ralph on the passing of Moe Berger, who succumbed to a heart attack. Faye and Moe had just moved into a new apartment, and had recently seen one of their sons married.

Good to see Idair Axler around again. She had been hospitalized for three weeks with a back ailment.

JVVA will have its Installation Dinner Dance on Sunday evening March 19 at the Convention Room of the Mint Hotel and invites the community to attend. Champagne and Buffet dinner will be served at 6:45 PM. Donation is $4 per person.

Past president Reba Isler will be installing officer. Incoming officers are: President, Beverly Bell; Faye Shapiro, 1st V.P.; Sylvia Berger, 2nd V.P.; Alico Bauer, and recording secretary; Rhoda Goussak, treasurer. Reservations may be made by calling 642-8551 or 735-0706.

We're glad to report that Louis Feldman is home again and recuperating after surgery last week.

Esther Harmell (Mrs. Harold) rushed to Ellay to be with her father who was hit by a car and seriously hurt. Hope to hear that things will be looking up there.

Sisterhood's Candlelight Ball on the 26th promises to be a very special social event of the season. Dr. and Mrs. Jerome Schwartz will again serve as co-chairmen of this Dinner Dance which will take place in the Coliseum Room, Caesars Palace.

So get your elegant duds ready and phone for reservations, Jeanne Levy, 735-4619 or Jeanne Messing, 735-6937 or Evelyn Goot, 735-7698.

fused about Weight Watchers' evening class, it's understandable because of a typographical error in last week's column. The time is 8:30 p.m.; the place is suite 1112, Thunderbird Hotel and the day is Tuesday. Members may join at any class and may come to either or both meetings. The afternoon Weight Watcher class is every Tuesday 1 p.m., same place.

Joe Rosenberg, VIP at the Riviera is happy to be home from the hospital after a heart attack.

Who's a year younger this month? Anne Rabin, Bea Peilte and Dianne Schwartz. Happy, happy.

Goldye and Sam Dombick and Goldye and Bernie Perlove have anniversary celebrations this month. Many, many more together!

What puts a brighter glow into a grandparent's eyes than another new grandchild? A hearty Mazel tov to Jack and Bea Tell who now have another bright little girl, Michele Donna, born on Feb. 27 to Rita and Don Tell in Los Angeles, where the proud grandparents will spend this week-end.
