Honorary Chairmen for Candlelight Ball.

MR. & MRS. DAVID MESSING, LEFT, AND MR. & MRS. LLOYD KATZ

The social spring marathon, The Candlelight Ball, goes into orbit Sunday evening, Purim night March 26, in the Coliseum Ballroom of Caesars Palace.

The annual fancy dress event is more than a party--it's a "happening," it's an "experience" and Ball Co-Chairmen Dr. and Mrs. Jerome H. Schwartz said, "this year's social event will be even more imaginative and successful than the last. The second Candlelight Ball is spattered with 'firsts.' "

The theme is classified information because, said Mrs. Schwartz, "we hope by not revealing it, it will add to the festivities." There will be dancing in a setting of decorative delights created by our decorations chairman Mrs. William Weinberger.

Dr. and Mrs. Jerome H. Schwartz have selected a dozen of the city's loveliest ladies to be hostesses.

Sisterhood's first Candlelight Ball, held last year in the exclusive Terrace Room of the Desert Inn Country Club, was such a tremendous social success that the idea of an annual Candlelight Ball has been flashed around the city carried by the doers and goers who refuse to miss this spectacular night.

It is the intent of The Sisterhood to host annually a Ball which is "fun raising

Ball which is "fun raising" not "fund raising." Through the year the organization raises funds and benefits many causes. The Candlelight Ball is an inventive, affectionate, exuberant tribute to Sisterhood's members and friends.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Max Goot, 735-7698; Mrs. Harry Levy, 735-4619; or Mrs. David Messing, 735-6937.

Sisterhood of Temple Beth Shalom requests the pleasure of your company.
