PROFILES
by Percy Villa

There are four people in my life in whom I have complete faith. They are: my wife, Annabell; my doctor, Dr. Jos. L. Fink; my attorney, George Rudiak, and my broker and today's 'Profile' BOB HARRIS, who is employed by Schwabacker and Company, member of the firm of the New York Stock exchange.

He was born in Chicago and where he attended public school. The family moved to Los Angeles and after 20 years he moved to Reno, where he was employed by Dempsey Tegeler and Co., A New York stock exchange firm.

Handsome Bob is known and loved by those that know him. He says the smartest move he ever made was 'moving to Las Vegas.' 'My friends seem to appreciate my stock talents,' he modestly says.

He graduated from Cnago Park High school in Los Angeles and attended the Long Beach City College. He is a graduate of the University of Nevada with an A.B.S. degree in economics.

Bob is 5-foot 10 1/2 inches tall, weighs 175, blue eyes and neatly combed brown hair. He wears a smile, with a dimple. ('I try not to let out my troubles on other people.') He is good natured and an exceptionally good
