BOB

salesman.

In 1961 he married the pretty Nancy Turner in Reno, they now live at 3021 Austin with their two year old daughter Gabrielle (The Harris's are expecting their second child next month).

His philosophy in life is: "To help people find their investment objective and show them how to achieve their investment goal."

He is a great all-round athlete. He came in third in the Nevada State Handball Tournament. He attends the weekly boxing shows. Bob played for the 'Waller Truckers' at the world soft ball tournament last September at Rock Island, Illinois. Is a class A player in handball and can be found at the Dula Recreation Center when most of you readers are eating your dinner.

Loves talking to people about, stocks, bonds and mutual funds. ("I make my living from them. It's home-work.")

He is punctual and remembers appointments.

Bob searches for integrity and sincerity in friends. ("I don't care whether they're successful or famous or what their profession is, that's not the important quality of a friend.")

He is loyal. Claims to have

Garner Debuts At Trop

Jazz great Erroll Garner makes his Las Vegas debut in the Hotel Tropicana Blue Room, where the musically mighty have established their swinging monarchy.

Classed among jazz immortals Louis Armstrong, Duke Ellington and Count Basie, the celebrated artist has won international acclaim for his classic keyboard style, highlighted by inspired improvisation.

Representative quotes from newspapers around the world include: "Erroll is an orchestra...surpasses all other jazz pianists"... "a high priest of improvisation... the master"... "greatest one-man band in the world...unforgettable jazz."

Appearing with Garner will be jazz standouts Walter Perkins, drums, Ronald Markowitz, bass, and Jose Mangual, bongo, while the Blue Room lineup will be rounded out by handsome singing star Bob Brame.

never lost a friend willingly. If he did it wasn't his fault.

He is sincere but he makes mistakes. ("I'm not a perfect character. I can say that, I do a lot of things wrong, but I'm always trying to be right, decent.")

He doesn't look as if he's married even when he's with Nancy.

Bob is not a big eater, holding to the simply food. Steaks, salad and coffee make a fine meal. He doesn't drink to excess, but will take a relaxing martini before dining. ("Sometimes I relax after dining, too.")

He arrives at his office and ready for work at 6:30 a.m. to answer questions about the stock market and Mutual Funds. "When the market is up, I'm happiest, because them I make my friends and accounts happy too."

He is honestly shy. He hates attention. He usually speaks only when spoken to.

His favorite newspaper is the Wall Street Journal.

Going to work, he dresses like a guy going to dinner.

His hobby is making people happy with their investments and I'm one of them.

You'll like Bobby Harris. He can be found daily at Schwabacher & Co. 410 South 3rd Street.
