Dear Bea and Jack:

It gives us pleasure to be sending you much of the best on the birth of wee Michele.

The greatest thing in life is to become grandparents. Good health to you and yours. Sincerely,

ISRAELITE ADS PAY

Dear Percy:

I want to thank you very much for the "glowing" write-up you gave me in the Israelite.

I don't know if the article will help the circulation, but apparently many people read it as I have received many, many comments.

Thanks again.
Regards,
Dick Chappell

Too bad that Entratter fella is Jewish--he'd make one hellava good Saint. I was especially impressed with his editorial regarding the Art of Giving.

Thank you, Mr. Tell, for your fine column on

Frank Young and me in the Las Vegas Israelite on March 31. It was excellent publicity for us, and I hope it was helpful to your readers.

Your concern for good legislation and for those of us who are here trying to give it to the people of Nevada is heartwarming. It is always good to have appreciation for one's work, and I am thankful for your kindness.

Gratefully,
Zel Lowman
