ENTRATTER

particularly our duty to maintain and support the Temple willingly and wholeheartedly, for the Temple serves each of us at all times.

Did you really know of the fine program offered by our Religious School and its affiliated segments? Did you really realize that our children can start in Pre-School at the age of 3 and remain under proper Jewish influence until 16 years of age when Confirmation takes place? Have you given some thought to cemetery grounds, memorials, Yahrzeit records and daily Minyon? How about the very fine library, staffed by our Sisterhood; and the beautiful Gift Shop-- "The Only store of its kind in Las Vegas," where you can get a variety of Jewish household items and gifts for young and old alike? The Temple's Choirs -- adults and childrens -- the Bulletin, our Sisterhood, our Mens Club, the Danny Kolod Youth House -- there is so much we can be justly proud of.

And the newest item in our Temple sponsored programs, now starting its second year of operation, is the Shalom Day Camp, to give the youngsters eight weeks of summer fun in a good Jewish atmosphere. All this is described in the pamphlet.

But these things do not just happen. The Temple is vital to every Jew, and it is unfortunate that there are those who keep separate and apart from the Jewish community until they need our clergy to serve at a funeral, (God forbid.) Affiliated persons and families, those who actively participate in as much as they can, really know the pleasure of belonging.

The Temple is our strength, as it has been since its creation. It is up to us to reciprocate and keep the Temple strong. Your personal membership is very important, but it is equally important that you get others to join and share in the responsibility as well as in the rewards. The work of getting new members goes on daily. I hope you haven't forgotten that each of us is a committee of one, serving God and man in this work.
