

AJPA TO ISRAEL

ATLANTA, Ga., (WNS) The American Jewish Press Association will hold its 24th annual convention in Jerusalem, with Premier Levi Eshkol slated to address the opening session on May 26, it was announced here by association president Adolph Rosenberg of the Southern Israelite.

On announcing the development, Mr. Rosenberg said holding of the convention in Jerusalem would enable the editors of the English-Jewish Press in American to secure a better understanding of Israel and to its readers in more knowledgeable terms.

A highlight of the convention will be a dialogue with members of the Israeli journalistic profession. Arrangements for such a confrontation are in the hands of Philip Slomovitz of the Detroit Jewish News and founding president of the association.

BUM COULDN'T WAIT

MUNICH (WNS) Paul Anton Reiter, former Nazi commander, is on trial here on charges of having slain ten Jews and a number of Soviet prisoners of war just as the war was coming to an end.

Reiter ordered the victims put to death in April of 1945 when he served as commander of an SS unite in Leiben, Austria.

KARLSRUHE (WNS) Hermann Krumei and Otto Hunsche, aides to the Nazi butcher Adolf Eichmann who paid with his life in Jerusalem for his crimes, must go on trial anew, it was ruled here by the High Court in upholding an appeal by the prosecution against the light sentence imposed by a Frankfurt court in 1965 on Krumei, who received a five year term.

Hunsche was acquitted. Both men were charged with participating in the slaying of more than 300,000 Jews. Both headed Eichmann's execution units.

KICKED OUT

WAYNE, N.J. (WNS) Newton Miller, who gained notoriety some weeks ago when he appealed to the voters of Wayne Township to defeat two Jewish candidates for the school board, has been replaced as vice president of the board by Fred Lafer, the lone remaining Jew on the board.

WRITE GEORGE

Columnist and short story writer George Roth, who also worked as a dealer around town, recovering nicely from a serious ailment and is now recuperating at Veterans Hospital, Tucson. Friends can drop him a note of cheer in Ward 306.
