Passover Greetings from
Mr. & Mrs. Mischa Violin

TEL AVIV (WNS) Israel's new Ambassador to the United Nations, Gideon Raphael, is to visit Moscow before he departs to New York to take over the post from Michael Comay, who voluntarily relinquished the assignment to return to the Israeli Foreign Ministry.

CLEVELAND (WNS) Acceptance of Federal aid to religious schools is "in part a betrayal of the historic mandate of the Jewish people to carry the responsibility for the study and teaching of Torah," it was declared here by Henry N. Rapaport, president of the United Synagogue of America. Jewish advocates of Federal aid, he asserted, "are embarking on a course which can ultimately lead to a weakening if not relinquishing of this commitment."

Phoenix and Tucson. There will be 70 out-of-town boys in attendance, plus 20 boys from Las Vegas and 10 invited guests to make this the largest regional event Mountain has had.

The theme for the conclave is "What I do I do Myself." This theme will attempt to prove that whenever you do anything wrong it is really your own fault but you are too busy looking for someone to blame to realize it.

The boys will have a panel discussion on Saturday. Members of the panel will be Juvenile Judge William P. Compton, assistant director of Health Education and Welfare Dr. Tom Scully and Ralph Hicks from Alcoholics Anonymous. A well known person whose name wasn't available at press time, will be moderator.

Among the highlights of the three days of events will be a luncheon banquet, volley ball tournament, presidents outgoing address, panel discussion, three rounds of debate, election of new regional officers, and a breakfast banquet on Sunday ending a full and complete program which promises to be educational as well as entertaining.

The main objective of the host members here in Vegas is to make sure that all visiting alephs (boys) who gather at this conclave get something out of the events so they can bring back home with them the knowledge that they gained here.

If this is accomplished it will be the ultimate success of a group of boys we are very proud of LAS VEGAS AZA. . .
