

Barney Glazer's "HOLLYWOOD HOTLINE"

Israel-born Nehemia Persoff, celebrated and distinguished film and television star, has agreed to head a group who will raise funds for the establishment of an idea that may eventually fulfill the hope for peace between Israel and the Arabian states.

Representatives of Israeli students made the approach to Persoff.

They feel that because today's youth represent tomorrow's solution to mushrooming worldwide problems, it becomes strategically timely and important to achieve immediate dialogue between Israel and the Arabian states through their young.

Students from both sides curricula in the U.S., France and other countries would set up the dialogue in their respective locales. In plainer words, they would sit down, become friends, and discuss their parents' problems.

Israel has no way now to talk with Arabs. To talk to Israelites, Arabs would thereby recognize Israel's existence. They are not about to do that.

The only way to achieve anything in this direction is to arrange such dialogue outside of the Arabian states with the youth of both sides participating.

It should be noted that this movement has been initiated strictly by Israeli students and bears no official sanction by the Israeli parliament. Oddly enough, it is under the auspices of the Protestant church.

Persoff eagerly jumped to the opportunity to solicit funds for this exciting program with its promising peaceful overtones.

Persoff has optioned the screenplay and will attempt to interest one of the major production companies to make the film. Both Bernard and Persoff are certain that the screenplay's title will be challenged and undoubtedly changed.

It's now called "The Code of the Cosa Nostra."

ISRAELITE ADS PAY

Mack announced at a meeting of their committee that proceeds from the champagne luncheon will be distributed through the Combined Jewish Appeal to feed Israeli children at a cost of ten cents per day, per child, for an entire year.

The luncheon is scheduled for May 10, in the grand ballroom of the Sands Hotel at 12:00 noon. Although the guest speaker for the occasion has not been confirmed, the ladies promise an exciting and interesting program. Additional information on reservations may be obtained by calling the Combined Jewish Appeal headquarters.
