

"NEWS A-GO-GO"
Reva Schwartz

It's fishin' weather and I've already seen two kooky injuries of the same type. The hook got caught in the weeds and trying to yank it free, it broke loose and the sinker came flying back with bullet-like speed. Shelly Schwartz saw it heading for his face, took cover, and sports a fancy bruise on his arm. Dianne Kishner wore a heavy jacket but nonetheless got struck in the mid-section with a sharp thud. Fishermen, take heed!

Louis Sickle is the happy owner of 2 shares of AT&T which he won at Hadassah's Evening with Molly Picon. He's recently home from service in Viet Nam.

See Ann Ratner's new mink jacket? She won that at the Daffy Dilly Luncheon!

Lily and Max Phillip took a week off to enjoy Ellay and its environs. Lily who is publicity chairman for Hadassah, did a fantastic job all year long in that capacity and she and her guy were glad to be able to honeymoon again.

Home from the hospitals are Alex Gold, Sharon Kauffman, Joel Martin, Pearl Rugatz, Frances Schwartz, 2-year-old Joanne Kishner, Tom Gallay and Terry Zibot, all agreeing that there's just no place like home.

Happy anniversaries to Cantor Herman and Gert Kinnory, Jane and Jack Leonard, Maxine and Dave Burton, Norma and Phil Wilensky, Sally and Ed Robins, and to Mildred and Ben Fullman.

Ruth Irwin was cocktail-partied by Reba Saiger this week, with great merriment and bon voyage wishes. Ruth is taking off next month on a tour of Europe.

Good to see Goldy Perlove back after surgery in Los Angeles.

Get-well wishes to Adele Leener, Harry Solomon, Rose Resnick, Irv Sharnick and Ben Kishner, all at Sunrise Hospital. On the sick list at SNMH are young Gordon Fink, three-year-old Marcy Lichtman, Becky Levy, Morris Hyman and Max Sherman. Please, you-all, get back on the track soon...it's springtime with much to enjoy.

Mildred Edelman's favorite pick-me-up drink is black cherry malted, Weight Watcher style. Try it. Take 1/3 cup nonfat dry milk, 2/3 cup lo-cal black cherry soda and 2 to 3 cubes,
