

Barney Glazer's "HOLLYWOOD HOTLINE"

Joey Bishop opened his national ABC television series before a small and select live audience in Hollywood.

What happened "in the black" (off camera between commercials) could make an interesting show in itself. As a matter of fact, I might suggest that Joey do that very thing. Why not keep the camera activated and tape the horseplay and ad libs for a future show?

In his warmup, Danny Thomas said, "Welcome to the Danny Thomas Show.

Joey is my closest friend in showbusiness, Jack Benny has his George Burns, I have my Joey Bishop."

Isn't there a message here for the rest of the Israel-Arab world?

"I consider Joey as the fastest wit in the west and I challenge anyone in the east," continued Thomas.

"Joey loves to chop me. Once, when I introduced him at the Sands Hotel, in Las Vegas, I felt that if I gave him an especially strong sendoff, he'd let me alone. As Joey walked onstage and I passed him, I said, 'Go get 'em, Joey' and I gave him an affectionate love tap on the cheek.

"Joey promptly affected a pained expression and howled at the audience, 'You saw it folks! An Arab hit a Jew!'"

Danny chuckled, recalling the incident, and said, "I told him he couldn't make an anti-Semite out of me. I showed him my cigarette lighter with a Mogen Dovid and said, 'See, doesn't this prove my feelings for the Jews?' I struck the lighter and it started to play Hatikvah.

"Joey stood there looking at the lighter, then at me and he finally said, 'You know, when the Las Vegas El Rancho Hotel burned down, the fire department couldn't find one trace of the origin but the captain said that he kept hearing Hatikvah all through the fire.'

"Joey has a great show tonight," Danny advised. "He has one of the funniest men as his guest (meaning himself.)"

Bishop kidded his assistant Regis Philbin about his name. "We were discussing candidates for the spot at the Brown Derby and someone said, 'How about Regis Philbin?' I thought it was something on the menu, so I said, 'Fine' and they signed him. What if I were to tell you his real name is Sol?"

When the remark drew heavy laughter, Joey groaned, "Lookit here, I'm doing all the good stuff in the black."

Bishop thought that Johnny Mann's orchestra did an especially fine job in view of the fact that they had organized only two days earlier.

Danny Thomas whined he had expected to sing on the show, Joey said, "You don't own this show." Danny, "Not tonight, I don't."

Danny used to sing a neat tune and once sang many cantorial numbers in the movie, "The Jazz Singer." Recalling it, Joey said, "When you sing, I get a feeling to fast."

At the end of the show, Joey pleaded with the departing audience, "Please don't leave. You have great seats for tomorrow night.

"Before you go," he concluded, "I want to thank Mrs. Edward G. Robinson for being here--especially for making Mr. Robinson come tonight."

Robinson is a notorious fugitive from public functions in the Hollywood scene.

BBYO and THEN SOME

By Adrienne Schiff

The 1967 B'nai B'rith Girls Mountain Region Conclave was held in Tucson, April 14th through April 16th. The girls from Las Vegas went to Phoenix, by plane and from there along with the Salt Lake and Phoenix Chapters, went by bus to Tucson. There were eleven chapters in all at Conclave. They came from Phoenix, Tucson, Salt Lake, and Las Vegas.

The nine girls who represented Las Vegas were Bonnie Bass, Shelley Levine, Lorrie Shapiro, Barbara Lebovitz, Loretta Kohn, Priscilla Rhoades, Mindy Kern, Susie Harris, and Candy Margulies.

Among the many events at Conclave were the Scrap Book competitions, Oratory Contests, and Song Contests. The Las Vegas Chapter took first place in the Song Contests and the Cheer Contest. Both songs were written by Lorie Shapiro and the Cheer was written by Mindy Kern and Bonnie Bass. Candy Margulies was Orator for our Chapter. The Oratory Theme this year was "Walk together, talk together, O ye people of the Earth, then and only then shall ye have Peace."

Elections were another exciting part of Conclave. Candy Margulies was elected regional reporter, and out of five chairmanships offered - Citizenship, Recreation-Creativity, Service, Jewish Heritage and Fellowship, Las Vegas girls secured two. They were Lorrie Shapiro, Recreation-Creativity; and Barbara Lebovitz, Citizenship. Shelley Levine and Susie Harris were chosen delegates for the district convention, which will be held in Long Beach, California this June. The district president Karin Kaplan from Los Angeles was a guest at Conclave. Mountain Region is a part of District 4 which includes the entire West Coast and parts of Canada. We got home Sunday night. Everyone had a terrific time and the Las Vegas Chapter made an outstanding show!

We would like to thank the community for so generously participating in our annual Passover Candy Sale! Because of their wonderful support, it was the most successful one we ever had!
