

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

NEW YORK... Harold Sherman Goldberg, prominent investment securities executive of Boston, has been named Chairman of the National Membership Cabinet of the American Jewish Committee, it was announced by Morris B. Abram, President of the Committee.

NEW YORK, N.Y. (SPECIAL) -- A warm call to American Jewry to rally to the help of Israel in its present emergency was issued by the Moetzes Gedolei Hatorah (Council of Torah Sages), a body consisting of the foremost Torah scholars in Orthodox Judaism, Portraying "the mortal danger" facing the Israel community, the rabbinic leaders declared that "to remain silent in a time such as this is sinning against the Almighty and Israel." The proclamation is being distributed by the national headquarters of Agudath Israel of America, 5 Beekman Street, New York City.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The American Zionist Council, in a reply to the appeal by the Executive of the World Zionist Organization for support by the Jewish people everywhere in the current crisis, has pledged "the unstinting" support of the American Zionist movement "in protecting Israel's sovereign rights and unhampered Israeli use of the Gulf of Aqaba."

NEW YORK (WNS) -- There is an urgent need "to unite all Jewish organizations in the United States to adopt a common program of action" to aid Israel in her hour of peril, it was declared here by Jacques Torczyner, president of the Zionist Organization of America.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- A warning that "the Mid-Eastern crisis can fan anti-Semitism in this country" was sounded here by Morris B. Abram, president of the American Jewish Committee. Mr. Abram took note of the fact that anti-Semitism had reached its peak in the United States during World War II and that, while the majority of the American people were sympathetic with the Jewish victims of Hitler, "some prejudiced people blamed the Jews for U.S. involvement in the war."

NEW YORK (WNS) -- A. Y. Agnon, Israeli Nobel Prize winner in literature, was honored here at a ceremony at City Hall where Mayor Lindsay presented him with the Medallion for Distinguished Service.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The right of Rabbi Maurice N. Eisenrath, president of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, to speak out as an individual on public issues was sustained here by the organization's Board of Trustees which simultaneously reaffirmed confidence in the leadership of the UAHC.
