Dear Jack:

Did you ever miss an exciting convention? Probably the most meaningful ever in our Association history. At least I hope we never have another one like it because the Israelis do not deserve ever to be under such pressure, in such mortal danger---ever.

In the meanwhile, it gives me great pleasure to let you know that the Las Vegas Israelite is the recipient of a PRESIDENTIAL AWARD FOR DISTINGUISHED SERVICE TO AMERICAN JEWISH JOURNALISM.

The unique Award, created especially for this occasion, will be sent you directly from Israel, doubtlessly as soon as our liaison there can recoup from the confusion of the past few weeks and catch up on the details.

Meanwhile, let me again say how much we missed you on this trip and send you warm personal regards.

Sincerely,
Adolph Rosenberg
(President, Amer. Jewish Press Assn.)

Dear Jack:

It's officer-changing time in Hadassah and while going through my files, in preparation for the exchange of portfolios, I came across this receipt which you should have.

I was at the board meeting when our treasurer spotted you in the hallway, and left the room with a check for you in payment of a bill we owed your newspaper. When she returned she wore a broad, bewildered smile, and in her hand she carried a check from you to Hadassah for twice the amount of the bill.

We were all a bit overcome by such generosity. Your lovely gesture was so magnanimous and so magnificent.

We are all so grateful to you for your contributions that help so much to further the life giving work of Hadassah, and we are grateful to you, too, for all the help you have given us through the medium of your newspaper. The Israelite has played a very important part in helping the Las Vegas Chapter of Hadassah bring its message to the community.

Your kindness, understanding, and generosity have endeared you as a treasured friend of Hadassah.
Sincerely Yours,
H. Margulies, Secy.

Dear Percy:

It was a pleasure meeting you during your recent visit to my office.

Thanks for the very nice writeup that you made regarding me and Paradise Spa in your "Profiles" column of your June 9, 1967 issue.

Thanks also for the extra copies of the publication that you sent out to me.
Chas. C. Martin
General Manager

Dear Pat:

Many, many thanks for the box of tea bags, which I know I shall enjoy immensely. It was so nice of you to think of me and I deeply appreciate your consideration.

My warmest personal regards to you.
Very truly yours,
John Mowbray
Master Calendar Judge

And a special thanks to our advisor, Mr. David Gordon, for his guidance and cooperation.

Sincerely
Larry Brown
