Eshkol Says Direct Peace Talks With Arabs Only Solution

JERUSALEM (WNS) Premier Levi Eshkol, at his week-end Cabinet meeting, declared that direct peace talks with the Arab states held the only solution to the current crisis.

Mr. Eshkol made the statement as his Cabinet was assaying developments at the United Nations, where the General Assembly has been meeting in emergency session over the Israel-Arab crisis.

At the same time Minister of Defense Moshe Dayan told the Cabinet that efforts were proceeding to return normal civilian life to the areas affected by the war.

Earlier, at Tel Aviv, the Minister of Defense disclosed that Israel and Jordan had agreed on an exchange of prisoners of war. Meanwhile reports reaching Israel from informed sources indicate that Soviet arms are flowing into Egypt by ships that are bringing all kinds of weapons, including tanks, military trucks, Mig fighters and other arms.
