Birthday Greetings to Gemeni's and Moon Children; Dave Bliss, Sydelle Moss, Dave Sirota, Mary Marks, Gordy Fink, Joy Moss (soon to be a bride) Fred Swartz, Michael Brookman, Morton Saiger, Ruth Rabin, Edythe Katz, Lester Stamm and Kattie Weiner. Anniversaries: Jack & Jeanne Resnick, Claire & Sam Axler, Rose & Ed Ackerman, Morry & Judy Matorian, Lois & Alvin Levy, Eileen & George Brookman, Dave & Rita Bliss, Melvane & Herb Rowe, Corrine & Murray Stuts, Elaine & Art Turk, Toni & Irv Braverman, Jane & Al Benedict.

Jeri Snyder vacationing in Saratoga, N.Y. spending time with her sister Ann Warren. Jeri's son Walter is now a Major in the Army Reserves.

You think you have trouble, ask Susie Chenin how difficult it is for her to purchase a dress. Of course, she wears a size 3.

Rhonda and Ronald Lurie are quelling over their daughter Beverly who weighed in at 6 lbs 3 oz. This makes Ellie and Art grandparents for the first time and are they ever happy, and why not? Good luck always.

Mrs. Lou (Rae) Oloff home after undergoing surgery. Wants to thank everyone for the goodies, letters, cards, etc set to her while convalescing. The good wishes were sure a great help in boosting her spirits.

Mrs. Hank Greenspun hosted a lovely Tea-Show in honor of the new Mrs. Stephen Goot (Yda) last Saturday in her home. Many of the so called old timers, that is, those that have known Evelyn and Max for sometime were more than happy to meet Yda. Yda is a doll, pretty, charming and so gracious. It was a pleasure to watch her opening her gifts and each present I know will be cherished. This, I believe was the first party of this kind that Yda ever attended, much less for herself. Yda has traveled quite a bit. Starting with Israel, Cuba, Rochester, N.Y., and then to New York City where she met her beloved. The party was fun and a very social afternoon was enjoyed by all.

"Today, I am a Man" in other words reciting from the Haftora so said David Ungar, son of Jesse Ungar, who did the recitation Friday, June 30th at Temple Beth Shalom with Rabbi Gold and Cantor Kohn assisting. The parents of the Bar Mitzvah hosted a Special Kiddish in the social hall immediately after the conclusion of the services. MAZEL TOV.

Thanks to the Jewish War Veterans of Las Vegas, Post 711, a flagpole has been put on the grounds of Temple Beth Shalom in memory of Jewish servicemen who have died defending the United States. Has anyone noticed how few flags there are in Las Vegas? Quick, how many hotels fly the flag of this country????? Mitchell Bell was responsible for this.

No doubt many residents were happy to read about our former Rabbi Harry Sherer receiving his PH. D. degree at UCLA. He also finished all courses at the Graduate School of Education with a straight A, receiving too a notation of honors for his oral and written doctoral examinations.

Jack Entratter, prez of the Sands, jubilant as his children and grandchildren are visiting with him, Michelle and Carole and offsprings. All so pretty.

Sheila Prell Wedding

Among the Las Vegans who attended the nuptial rites of Miss Sheila Prell and Yhal Sonenshine were Dr. and Mrs. Alex Coblentz Messrs and Mmes Dean Elson, Gil Gilbert, Hank Greenspun, Max Goot, Jerry Mack, Jack Melvin, Saul Messer, Melvin Prell, E. Parry Thomas and Mrs. Paula Clark, Mrs. Stan Irwin, and Richard Kanellis.

Color scheme for this charming wedding was yellow pale yellow and white. Following the nuptials, a reception was held in the Maisonette Room of the Beverly Hills Hotel. The nine tiered wedding cake was beautifully decorated and topped with the traditional bride and bridegroom and was prepared by Executive Chef Bill Jaeger and Dennis Marteg, pastry chef of the Alladin Hotel of which Sheilas pop is president. The cake was delivered to Calif.

Mother of the bride Debbie was attired in a cocktail mer nurse school at our temple? If not, why not look into it as the mothers are more than happy with what the tots are being taught and how constructively they are kept busy. Wonderful idea and within everyone's reach financially.

Dr. & Mrs. Herbert (Malvine) Rowe will be greeting their guests very soon at the wedding of their #1 son Michael. More about this in a later column.

length sheath of yellow and silver sequins with matching full length coat, and wore a white orchid. Mother of the groom, Mrs. Schlomo Sonenshine (Haifa) wore a sheath of smoky pink jeweled silk crepe and chiffon adorned too with a white orchid.

Of course the fathers of these two children wore broad smiles and proved to be most gracious hosts.

Sheila graduated from UCLA with a degree in economics and will continue her education by going to Loyala Univ. this fall as a law student. Yhal also was a graduate of UCLA with a degree in business administration and is presently employed by the Albert Parvin Co. in Beverly Hills.

They honeymooned at Lake Tahoe and will reside in Brentwood.

Hearties congratulations and may you both enjoy many, many years of happiness and good health.
