PROFILES

by Percy Villa

Today's 'Profile' goes to veteran MIKE RENIS, who has seen this town of ours grow for little more than 22 years.

He has been employed in just about every casino and Strip hotel during these many years.

It was Larry Wolf, chairman of the board of Hotel Bonanza who a few months ago announced the appointment of veteran Las Vegas gambler Mike Renis as President of the new hotel's Casino Corporation. He also serves as Casino Manager.

He comes from La Salle, Illinois, has been involved in every phase of the gambling industry and is recognized as one of the businesses leading exponents.

He likes people. He believes people don't like him.

He has to be won over. ("What would I do without people, I love 'em all.") He is basically a shy and modest person. He doesn't look for publicity or do things that will cause attraction. He can be curt and outspoken. ("I don't like people to take advantage of others, especially when you're in a position to do so.") Once he opens up he becomes very warm and friendly. And when he becomes your friend it's for keeps.

He is 51 years old, five feet 11 and 1/2 inches tall and a trim 175 pounder. He has hazel eyes, brown and graying hair and is usually very happy.

His best complement on opening nite of the Bonanza came from a major owner of a Strip hotel and neighbor
