MIKE

who said: "This is the smoothest opening night of a new hotel I've ever seen."

Mike Renis and pretty wife, Emily, are parents to Michelle 4, and she's all the Renis talk about when they're together ("She's our 24 hour-a-day topic.")

They have a beautiful home at the Stardust Golf Course and Michelle attends Seton Accadamy.

The past month he has been working 16 hours per day. I almost feel like a prize fighter preparing for an important bout. ("The physical requirements of my work are probably as exacting as any ever taken.")

He is a person of determination. He became a most popular boss because he is considerate of others and displays no temperament, almost always.

He is of Greek-Italian ancestry. He favors Italian dishes.

Mike is not the Madison Avenue type in garb. He dresses very casually, sometimes a little on the sloppy side.

He is extremely loyal. He has never knowingly betrayed a confidence. He expects everyone to be the same way.

Renis likes to cook, and is good at it. His specialty is something he calls "the revolutionary cannonball." It's a form of meat loaf. He's an expert with baked beans, too.

He is an expert linguist. He speaks five languages, including Greek and Italian. Many times during his job, he is careful to retain his greek or Italian accent, depending who he's talking wity. ("I'm no fool, my accent is important to my business.")

He is a football and baseball fan and a loyal supporter of all the California teams. He also attends most of the sporting events held in Las Vegas.

He doesn't sing in the shower.

Renis doesn't believe in taking anything for granted. ("I've discovered from past experience that 'pride cometh before a fall'.")

He is grateful the many stockholders for the confidence they have given him with the title as President of the Bonanza Hotjel Casino Corporation and also his capacity as Casino Manager.

You'll enjoy the BONANZA Hotel and its many features and it's all because the employee's are behind MIKE RENIS.

He's a sweet guy.
