

OF THE STARS' ★

success of "That Certain Gairl." Claims to have had his hands in every act and scene and casting. It is now on its third month and doing capacity business.

He can be quiet and attentive when talking to members of the cast. He can also laugh loudly and play practical jokes.

He admires good performances. He looks for the small things the show people do.

He has a tough time saying "no", or agreeing with anyone on any subject.

He says 'hello' to every employee he sees every day.

He is frank to admit he enjoys everything about Las Vegas and the talented people who make it such an exciting place to live.

He enjoys having someone with him constantly even if no conversation passes between them ("I just like to know there's a pal around.")

He is indifferent about clothes. Slacks and sport shirt is his favorite combination. Colors don't matter. He wears a white shirt and tie only when he has to. ("I don't like the fuss of getting all dressed up.")

His hobby is listening to people and their troubles. He usually gives 'em a helping hand. Claims that he does more than his share of good deeds daily.

He is continually in good humor. Those who know him sell have never seen him angry.

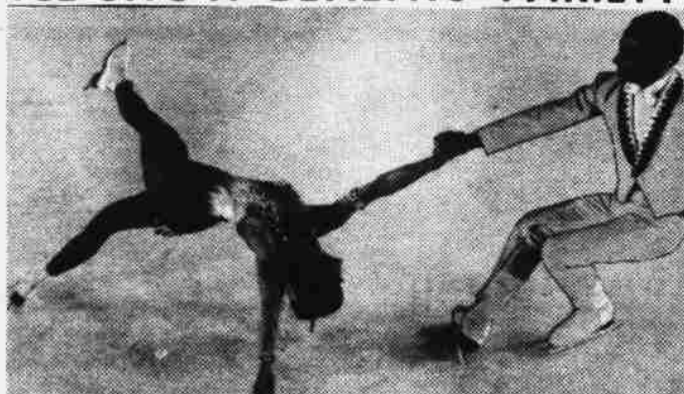

He stays up late. He is able to sleep any time, anywhere and for any length of time that is available to him.

He is a good listener when others are talking or telling stories, which makes him an unusual guy.

George Rosen has done many good things for this town. He gives as his supreme ambition: "I want to help my fellow man, as well as myself, to a deep fulfillment in life."

A sweet person is Georgie.
