That was quite a surprise party Murray Kachad's friends gave him to celebrate his "40th" birthday. Theme was "Old Rooster" and the surprise on everyone's face when Murray opened the gift presented him by Carole and Leonard Raizin should have been on film because out jumped a real old rooster. Gifts naturally were synonymous, like a knife (for the sherkit) a yamakel, barbecue sauce, noodles, etc. and all the trimmings that would go with a real western chicken dinner. There were 40 guests, and a ball was had. Belated birthday greetings Murray and may you and your friends celebrate many more such happy occasions. Murray says THANKS, THANKS,

THANKS for a delightful surprise.

Jeanne Robbins entertaining her sister Kittie Schwab from Brooklyn, New York City. Jeanne is Chief Volunteer Coordinator for the Easter Seals Cripple Childrens drive and she is badly in need of VOLUNTEERS, so all you joiners of organizations, why not find time to do a good deed for such a very worthy cause. VOLUNTEERS are needed for clerical help, therapy, etc. please contact the center 382-2994. Incidentally, organizations can hold small meetings in this building free of charge and coffee too will be served. Any further information call Jeanne who will be more than happy to answer all questions.
