

Barney Glazer In Hollywood

Had your irony for the week?

The Israeli government is negotiating with a company for the purchase of its executive jet manufacturing business for a reported $25, 000,000. The corporation has been seeking to sell its Jet Commander business.

The division is located near Oklamona City. Necessarily, the plan would be moved to Israel.

Name of the company: Rockwell-Standard Corp.

AT THE Sahara Hotel, Las Vegas, Buddy Hackett had to put down an anti-Semitic heckler. Buddy had asked, "Let me hear all the Jews here applaud." Then, he requested, "Now, let me hear all the Christians applaud." When the Christian applause drowned out the Jewish applause, at least 30-1, Buddy commented wryly, "We Jews had better not make trouble."

Just then, the "one that is in every crowd" made his obnoxious presence known by yelling out, "Yuh, but you Jews have all the money."

Twisting his mouth as if he were centering on a prune pit, Buddy said, "Oh, ho, he is here already. It didn't take him long, did it? Anyway, mister, that isn't true -Morgan, Rockefeller, Hughes, Sinatra, Crosby - plenty of Christians have more money than Jews. But what's the difference? God only has people."

The audience roared its approval. It was comforting. Remember, those on hand were mostly Christians.

Buddy has a down-to-earth philosophy that has an innocent way of penetrating all religious obstacles. At times, he speaks with the wisdom of a 99-year-old Talmudic scholar.

DID YOU know that Israel doesn't have a television station but the tiny nation has more than 10,000 tv sets in its scattered homes? So? So, they receive their movie programs by running up tall antennas on their rooftops and bootlegging filmed telecasts from Amman and Cairo.

Did you also know that the Israeli Army won and lost an important part of the war? It captured hundreds of the Arabian movies, which they should have bypassed discreetly. Now that they have the films they have no way to telecast them.

NBC-TV's Run for Your Life will soon show a segment titled, "Shalom, Scorpio, Shalom," shot in post-war days. Ina Balin guests as an Israeli sabra with Ben Gazzara.

YALE SUMMERS, Daktar-i's dashing but not confirmed bachelor, now living near Schwab's Drug Store on the Sunset Strip, is looking for a newer and bigger house. Hollywood starlets have declared open season on the handsome young actor. They'd like to twine their ivy around Yale.

WHEN HIS guests step out into the backyard, Bobby Morse waves sophisticatedly at "my swim pool and tennis court." Actually, the young star is pointing at pictures. Until he gets around to installing the genuine features pixie Bobby is establishing his claim to society's badge of affluence.

Jewish Art Offer To Israelite Readers

Most Jewish families have seen the beautiful and distinctive Manischewitz calendars which feature original works of art by the noted American artist, Paul Freeman.

In response to many thousands of requests for larger versions of Mr. Freeman's works, Manischewitz has made available four full color reproductions 9"x12" suitable for framing. Each is reproduced on fine art paper that closely resembles the look of the originals. These works by Paul Freeman include "The Traveling Musicians," "Symbols of Faith," "The Traveling Merchant," and "The Joy in Working."

To obtain this set of four paintings send just $1.00 to: Manischewitz Art Reproductions

New Year's Message

by Dewey D. Stone,
Chairman United Israel Appeal, Inc.

For the first time since the rebirth of Israel as an independent State, the Jewish High Holy services will be conducted at the spot most sacred to our tradition, the Wailing Wall in the heart of the old City of Jerusalem. The return to this ancient Wall, which for close to 2,000 years has been a symbol not only of dispersion and destruction but also of the hope and longing for rebirth and reconstruction, gives a special meaning to the High Holiday prayers of Jews everywhere.

No other event could highlight so poignantly the historical continuity of the Jewish people who through the centuries have kept faith with the Holy City and with their brothers all over the world. In this continuity of Jewish identity and mutual responsibility, the United Israel Appeal has been privileged to play a significant role. As the arm of American Jewry, it has been instrumental in the rescue and ingathering of over one million Jews from the four corners of the earth.

Many of those who will offer their Rosh Hashanah prayers this year at the place most sacred to our people are the survivors of one of the darkest periods in Jewish history. American Jewish aid has meant a new beginning and a new life for most of them.

As we approach these High Holidays, we pledge ourselves to continue this vital philanthropic program. We join our brothers in Israel and throughout the world in their prayers for the welfare, safety and peace for all mankind.

On behalf of the members and officers of the United Israel Appeal and for myself, I wish to extend my sincerest wishes for a Happy Peaceful New Year.
