Tommy Vig is organizing a soccer team in Las Vegas. Anyone interested should call him between the hours of 5 p.m. and 4 a.m. at 735-7747.

Joe Novack, Kay Wallerstein's brother, hospitalized at Sunrise. Send him a card.

George Kirwin, blind operator of the news stand at the main Post Office, tells of the woman who requested all the Los Angeles Times in the rack. "How about the Las Vegas Israelite," he suggested. "No," she replied, "I'm house breaking a puppy dog and I need the fattest papers."

Lawyer Mike Hines, a devoted Catholic, tells of his dad never being without a Jewish calendar on his desk. The elder Hines was in the business of packing and shipping meat. Years back he had learned never to ship meat on a Jewish holiday.

Millie and Nick Scott (He's a pit boss at the Desert Inn) have returned from their vacation in California. I'm sure that they would be the first to tell you that it's always fun to go away, but coming back to their many friends makes this popular couple happy.

Mrs. Jackie (Betty) Mandell spent a few days in Reno where she attended the wedding of nephew Dennis Mandell to Kathryn Blaikie. Dennis is a graduate of Reno University where he was most active in sports. His bride is the former Miss Nevada, 1965. After their honeymoon in Hawaii, they will make their home in Reno. Kathryn will get her degree in two years and hopes to teach.

Murray and Madeline Posin who are now in Greece where they went to visit have decided to live there and are selling everything in Las Vegas. Murray is an attorney, representing a very wealthy Greek client. This is a lucky break for the Posins in both the legal and financial field, and is more or less a success story. I remember when they first came to our town, but what happened to the Posins also can be said about many other residents. Las Vegas has been kind to many and I so well remember hearing "We came to Las Vegas to make our fortune and get out."

Well, many are still here with their fortunes. After all, where does one find the golden opportunities that presented themselves when the town was smaller but growing rapidly, also there wasn't the competition then that we have now in some fields and yet in other fields there just isn't any competition. However, for those that struck it rich enjoy what
