

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

DETROIT (WNS) Several hundred of the 3,000 student body at suburban Southfield High School walked out in protest against the action of the school in giving a holiday to Jewish students on Rosh Hashana. The school has a registration of 800 Jewish students.

PARIS (WNS) Israel education authorities disclosed that six more public elementary schools had opened in the former Jordanian sector of Jerusalem, bringing the total to 72 since the opening of the new school season. Arab extremists had resisted the opening of the schools.

JERUSALEM (WNS) A plan envisaging the possible repatriation of about 40,000 Arab refugees may emerge as a result of talks between Israel and the International Red Cross. Details of the plan have not been made public, but it is believed its chief aspect will be reunification of sundered Arab families.

PARIS (WNS) Martin Bormann, elusive top-Nazi war criminal, is alive and living somewhere along the Brazil Paraguay frontier, according to Simon Wiesenthal, who has dedicated his life to tracing Nazi war criminals and bringing them to trial. Mr. Wiesenthal made the assertion in a radio interview here.

NEW YORK (WNS) A temporary injunction barring an American-Italian organization from using the title "Anti-Defamation League" was issued here by New York State Supreme Court Justice Waltermade on application of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. The Jewish organization maintained that the use of the phrase was inimical to the rights and interests of the ADL. The action was brought when officials of the Italian organization refused to budge on the use of the title. The issue will be settled at a trial to be set by the court.

BONN (WNS) Israel is to be given a loan of $40 million by the West German Government, it was disclosed here in a statement by the Foreign Ministry which said the agreement stipulated that Israel was not to use the money for military purposes.

JERUSALEM (WNS) Uncovering of a bomb in the Zion Cinema here has triggered an intensive police search for the Arab terrorists who are believed to have planted it. The bomb was discovered by a policeman shortly before it detonated.

NEW YORK (WNS) Launching of a campaign to finance construction of a blood bank and hospital complex in Haifa, Israel, was announced here by the American Red Mogen David for Israel. The project is expected to involve a cost of close to a million dollars.

LONDON (WNS) The Sunday Observer, on the basis of information it said it received from trustworthy "neutral" sources, reported that there were growing indications of readiness on the part of President Nasser of Egypt to enter into meaningful talks with Israel.

TEL AVIV (WNS) Two Arabs who were sent to the west bank by Syria to train saboteurs were given life terms by a tribunal in Hebron, where they were seized.

his present military command since 1965. During the recent Six-Day War in the Middle East, he led the combined forces which captured the village of Sharm el Sheik at the Straits of Tiran. This action enabled Israel to break the Arab blockade of the Port of Elath.

With more than two decades of military service, Col. Davidi is among the outstanding professional soldiers of the State of Israel. He has held numerous key assignments, and has played an important role in the successful operations of the Israel Defense Forces.

During Israel's War of Independence, Col. Davidi fought in the famous Negev Brigade which defeated the Egyptian army. At the time of the Sinai Campaign in 1956, he was second-in-command to General "Arik" Sharon of a paratroop brigade which inflicted heavy damage on the Egyptian forces.

Col Davidi's military career began in 1945, when at the age of eighteen he joined the Haganah, the Jewish underground resistance organization formed during the British Mandate in Palestine. With the establishment in 1948 of Zahal, Israel's Defense Army, he was appointed company commander in the Paratroop Corps.

In addition, he has served as an instructor at the Israel Army officers' training school. Several years ago, he was sent to Paris to attend military courses at the Ecole de Guerre, the French Staff College.

Born in 1927 in Tel Aviv, where he still resides, Col Davidi is married and has three children.
