Happy Birthday to the local chapter of Bnai Brith. They will be celebrating their 24th year with a birthday party October 20th at 12 noon at Temple Beth Shalom. A most delightful afternoon is being planned by a very active committee which is being headed by Mrs. Sam Gutterman (Mardi) assisted by Messrs. Sol Bromberg, William Schwartz, Louis Harmel, William Sincoff, Herman Kishner, Lester Goldring, Link Kramer, Oscar Agron, Leonard Shafer, George Harris, Samuel Speiser, Alfred Koch, Morton Goldstein and Bert Genstel. Mrs. George Rudiak will supply the music (piano).

Souvenirs will be given to all who attend. The program will be a musical starring Maxine Quinn and Marilyn Resnick, assisted by Calra Dase, Sharon Shopp, Micky Wilner, Freida Soskin, Beth Shapiro and Sara Ezor. It will be worth your while and it's FREE.

The Hammes are in heaven celebrating the 21st birthday of their beautiful daughter, Hillary. Helping to celebrate are Jack's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. & Mrs. Al Hammes from L.A.

Evelyn and Charles Rich are grandparents for the 7th time. Their son George Duckworth and his Kim became parents of a beautiful little doll weighing in at 7 lbs., 14 ozs.

Eugene Feher, for many years the organist at Temple Beth Shalom is ill and hospitalized at the Brentwood Veterans Hospital, Ward #205, Los Angeles, California. We would like to suggest that get-well card and a good wish from you would be greatly appreciated by the popular Gene.

GRANDPARENTS

Strangest Creatures on Earth

BY JACK TELL

KIM, 7 MOS.

So many comments about Kimberly Ann O'Neill standing in her crib at the age of four months, we had to re-check and what we found was amazing.

Grandma Dean Fewkes, office manager of Allied Printers, had been telling us all along, but we just put her in the category of all grandparents, you know, "Strangest Creatures on Earth."

Baby Kim now weighs 17 pounds, and according to grandma, has a mind all her own, "that is impossible to change." She not only pulls herself up, she walks around everything, says gamma.

Army doctors at Fort Bliss, where dad, Steve, is stationed and mother, Gwen, dwells, say Kim will be walking before she is nine months old. Kim loves ice cream, grandpa and Uncle Danny, and hates going to bed. Says "mama," and "dada" and "no."

Meanwhile, Michele, who gained 2 lbs., 3 ozs., and now weighs 19 lbs., 13 ozs. (7 mos. old) She's asleep at the crack of 7:30 and up at the count of 7 a.m. You can tell time by her schedule. During her sleeping hours she's adorable. When awake she's lovable.
