Congratulations to Jack Lehman who will be practicing the law in Las Vegas. Jack and his family (formerly Ruth Levinson) at one time were Vegas residents and moved to Calif. Jack too used to have a program on TV.

Sophie Mamlet, Thelma Coblentz' mother spending sometime with her Las Vegas family, consisting of four generations. Namely, daughter Thelma, grand-daughter Susan Feld and grandchildren James Robert and Laurie Allison Feld.

Jean Sherwin thanks everyone who wished her a speedy recovery and wants everyone to know that the cards, get well wishes, etc. helped speed her recovery. Jean is now home and everyone is welcome to come over and visit.

Correction! The date for the B'Nai Brith Birthday Party is Oct. 30th, members and prospective members will be guests of the organization. See you all at the Temple at noon on Mon., Oct. 30th.

The Joe Delaneys celebrated their 3rd anniversary Monday night, three down, ninety-seven to go.

Condolences to the family of Jean Schumer. Jean passed away while visiting with her sister Mrs. Lee Cohen in Columbus, Ohio.

From George Anthony, Chief Engineer of the Nevada Public Service Commission we learn that "Drastic changes in power dispatching methods resulting from the growing federal system interconnection concept, has created a "grandfather complex" with too much automated centralization, which is the primary reason for the increasing number of people kept coming up to Henny, shaking his hand, congratulating him on his outstanding performance. And they're not alone in their appreciation of his offerings.

Jack Benny is a long-time admirer of Henny's talents. That's why we'll be seeing Youngman on the Jack Benny Special, TV-show, Nov. 1. Don't miss it, and don't miss Henny anywhere you see his name on the marquee, anywhere across the country.

widespread power blackouts. However, the cost of electricity has been reduced by one-third of what it was thirty years ago. Isn't that nice?

The Tell's hosting long-time Los Angeles friends Lou and Debbie Mitnik, celebrating their 11th Anniversary at the Aladdin. He owns those Stop-Look signs you see all over town. She's Sisterhood V.P. at Hollywood Temple Beth-EL. Nice people.

Jack and Babe Hammes drinking a toast to Babe's sister Sarah Friedman who has been a resident of Las Vegas these past seven years and her new husband Sheldon Boland. After their honeymoon Mr. & Mrs. Boland (Sarah & Sheldon) will continue to live in Las Vegas. Much good luck and happiness.

From Mitch and Beverly Bell come two adorable granddaughters, Rhonda Kim 4, and Holly Beth, 3, children of Mr. and Mrs. Marilyn Ruggere. Always smiling, always pleasant, according to the Bells, these two dolls show every indication of growing into outstanding, beautiful women. They are brilliant, personable and most considerate of others, even at this early stage.

Speaking of early stages, Michele's second tooth is about to pop, and while we believe this is responsible for some more pesky flem and a bit of a cough, the wonder child's disposition hasn't changed an iota. She's still the gurglingest, cooingest bundle of joy, natch.
