

THE STARS ★

is boating. He once owned the ocean racing sailboat, "Bongo" - a sleek 48-foot craft that was nosed out a few years ago in the Los Angeles to Mazatlan sailing classic.

In Phoenix, Bennett was a member of the well-known Thunderbirds special events committee for the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce. He also served as Board member of the Phoenix Boys Club, and as a member of the sponsoring committee for the Phoenix Open Golf Tournament.

Bennett and his attractive wife Lynn reside at 4113 Fortune Ave. with their two children, Dianna Lee, 18, and William Allen 15. They have a high regard for Las Vegas and are joiners of all the clubs although they have been in Las Vegas little over a year. They regard themselves as old timers already.

He is a plain food eater. ("I don't go for fancy dishes. When I like a food, I stay with it.") His favorite is a juicy steak.

He is always trying to improve himself by reading better literature, especially fiction, biography and history. He listens to Beethoven, Chopin and Mozart records. His all-time favorite recording is Barbara Streisand.

He has a good legal mind and always reads the fine print in all contracts.

Bennett enjoys traveling because it gives him a chance to meet people. Yet homes are his hobby.

He says his ambition is "to be better than I am, as a human being and businessman."

He is continually in good humor. Those who know him well have never seen him angry.

He is regarded as a business man's business man. This came about when he discovered that a Nevada oil well had swallowed up all his savings. ("A man must be proved at fault before I believe it.") He went to a pair of business consultants for advice. He was so impressed that he talked himself into a partnership then and there.

He is an apt pupil at anything that intrigues him. He likes people most who can contribute something to his knowledge.

He is well liked by the hundreds of people working at the MINT HOTEL and if you haven't met WILLIAM G. BENNETT - by all means do - you're in for a treat.
