HAPPY HANUKAH EVERYBODY

On the eve of the 25th day of the Hebrew month of Kisle, corresponding this year, to the evening of Tuesday, December 26, we shall commence the celebration of Chanukah.

We will recall that it was on this same Hebrew date in the year 167 B.C.E., that the hordes of Antioches Epiphanes of the Selencid Dynasty first swept down upon the ancient land of Judea. It was also on this very same date three years later, after the enemy had been routed by the Judeans, under the leadership of the Maccabees, that the land and its Holy Temple were again cleansed and purified.

The miracle of the lamp is well known by all and gives the Festival its duration.

Time and again in history, tyrants have risen against the People of Israel, and whether the name be Pharaoh, Antioches, Haman, Hitler or Nasser, the intent has always been the same. Miraculously, Israel has survived.

As we again kindle the lights of Chanukah, commemorating thereby the heroic deeds of the Maccabees and their Followers in those ancient days, shall there not also be in our hearts and minds, the names of Dayan and Rabin and those who followed them in the fateful days of June, 1967?

Is there not a distinct parallel between these two great historical events? Did not each one culminate with the deliverance of Israel?

This is indeed a wonderful Chanukah to celebrate?

Kladney. May I ask all of you for your cooperation? I am sure your program committee is planning a number of affairs. To be successful, we need you there.

With the excellent group of officers, board members and committee chairmen you have elected; I am sure we can look forward to a year Wasn't our Cantor, Sam Silverberg, wonderful during the High Holydays? Come and enjoy him every Friday night.

Your suggestions for the betterment of our Temple are welcome. Please let us hear from you. Don't complain to others. Let us know what you feel needs improving. We as your representatives will act on them to the best of our ability.

Our main problem, as I see it, is financial. We need more means of raising funds. Two or three affairs a year will not take care of our needs. Let us have ideas.

Another matter of prime importance is unity. We must all work together for one goal. A Temple for one and all. A center of Jewishness. Remember-Harmony. Don't depend on the usual few to do it all. We need your dues but we also need you.

HATS OFF TO SLATS

by Gil Sutton

State Senator James Slattery, Chairman of the Reno Chapter of National Conference of Christians and Jews requests the attendance of all his Jewish friends at the Annual Brotherhood week Dinner featuring a panel of Nevada Supreme Court Justices and the granting of three outstanding Brotherhood Awards, on Tuesday Evening, February 6, 1968, 7:30 P.M., at the Riverside Hotel. Dress is optional. All of the members and friends of Temple Emanu - El remember the wonderful assistance Senator Slattery gave in raising funds for the recent successful United Jewish Appeal Drive and his help in being our "Diamond Jim", at our recent Diamond Jim Nite. Let's all show our appreciation for a wonderful human being.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

"WITH TONGUE IN CHEEK".....

We have finally discovered a way for a Temple to function without money. Those who do not wish to support the Temple to the extent of their ability and those who want all the ministrations of religion at their disposal merely for the asking will be greatly pleased by the following recommendations which, if adopted, will cost them $0.00 annually:

1. Each member will come to services and activities warmly dressed to eliminate the necessity for heating. Ergo, no fuel bill.
2. Each member will come to Temple with brooms, mops, etc. to keep his part of the Temple presentable.

Each will be called on regularly to clean the kitchen, etc. Thus no more custodian (Oy, Tracy).

3. Each one will bring tools and materials to repair, remodel and repaint the building.

4. Each will bring his own Prayer Book and Bible.

5. All requests for service, from the Temple office will be made in person so as to eliminate telephone bills.

6. Each member will take his turn leading the Services, teaching classes, conducting funerals, marriages, calling on members, visiting the sick, handling correspondence, personal counseling, preparing programs, planning activities and guiding the administration of the Temple. This will save the expense of a Rabbi.
