by Percy Villa

Ever since he was a kid selling newspapers on street corners of Chicago, SY OGULNICK (now of Las Vegas) had a dream of helping children and at long last, his dreams have come true.

Sy and his wonderful sweet wife Lenette own and operate the LAS VEGAS CHILDREN CAMPUS located at 4321 Eastern (South of Flamingo Road.)

The Ogulnicks come from Las Angeles where they are known to thousands for their efforts in working and helping children from all walks of life.

He made a great impression upon us as a scholarly man of high education.

He gave me the impression also, that he was a youngish edition of Jack Dempsey. He did a little boxing, but didn't make it a profession.

Sy has a degree in education and psychology and has more than 20 years of experience in youth work. He has been a camp director for 20 years.

And a happy man he is. His camp is not only his dream but many of our town people are saying: "We have arrived". This is a most beautiful children's camp and its surroundings, such as play rooms, sleeping quarters, modern kitchen, dining room, tennis court, play grounds, swimming pool and work shops are the last word in comfort and convenience. The Children Campus is valued at an estimated $300,000, all of which is a real treat for our town. Parents are invited to come and see for themselves.

Sy was a teacher and guidance counselor for the past 10 years in Los Angeles.

He had visited Las Vegas a number of times but when his dream and building were completed, he and Mrs. Ogulnick moved into their new home at 1500 Raindance. ("We always loved this town, but more so now-living in our own home - instead of a hotel room.")

He is 5 foot 9 inches tall, a trim 170 pounder, with brown eyes and brown crew cut hair.

He is a graduate of UCLA and majored in Sociology.

He requires little sleep. On an early night after watching TV he turns in about midnite. He always gets up by 7:30.

He says: "There are no bad children, something happens to them before becoming, bad, then continues: "Parents don't spend enough time with their children. I would rather see children attend sporting events than adults. But wouldn't it be nice to see parents along with their youngsters at sporting events?"

His staff at the Las Vegas Childrens Campus is made up of University teachers and students.

Sy played (UCLA) football, baseball and did some boxing. He doesn't claim to have been an all-round athlete, but looks the part. He is modest and won't admit to the things I know of him.

He claims: "If more kids would get into sports - they'd become better citizens."

At the Childrens Campus there is a full time chef and meals are provided at all times. Also they provide the youngsters round-trip transportation. The sleeping quarters are most impressive. The parents will be most satisfied with it for their children.

Sy is concerned with the growth of the individual child. "A good remedy is by making a child more aware of himself."

The Las Vegas Childrens Campus is opened 24 hours around the clock, and parents and children are always invited for a look 'n visit to see for themselves.

He has a pre-school programing for children up to 16 years of age.

The Ogulnicks are in love with Las Vegas ("Where else do you find people so willing to help a stranger?")

He is punctual, if he remembers the appointment.

He searches for integrity and sincerity in friends ("I don't care whether they've successful or famous or what their profession is, that's not the important quality of a friend.")

You owe it to yourself to visit the Las Vegas Childrens Campus at 4321 Eastern. A treat you'll long remember.

The Ogulnicks are real fine folks to meet. They'll prove even finer when you get to know them.
