HAMDEN, Conn. (WNS) -- Contemporary rock 'n roll idiom will be part of the liturgy in a Jewish worship service for the first time, when Congregation Mishkan Israel here will present the premiere of a "Sabbath Service, Rock 'N Rest," a work by an Israeli composer. The performance will take place Dec. 22 at regular Friday night services. The composer is Isaachar Miron, a former deputy director of music in the Israeli Education Ministry. It calls for two choirs, two orchestral ensembles and an electronic music synthesizer. The ensembles are a group of musicians of the New Haven Symphony and the New York Rock n' Roll Studio Combo.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- A Canadian rabbi has charged that American Jews are being pressured into silence on the Viet Nam War on the grounds that their anti-war protests might alienate President Johnson and prevent his intercession for the State of Israel.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- A leading Reform rabbi and a prominent Catholic lay leader will lead a candlelight procession in front of the United Nations on Thursday with a holiday appeal to all combatants to end the war in Viet Nam.
