HANUKAH DANCE FREE

THE LORDS

Dan Goldfarb, Chairman of the Temple Youth Commission announced that the group will sponsor a Chanukah Dance for youth from 13 to 17 years of age in the Temple Social Hall on Saturday evening, December 23. Festivities will commence at 7:00 P.M. when the traditional latkes with all the trimmings will be served. Dancing will commence at 8:00 P.M., featuring the fab-

Betty and Gabriel Brown left Smogsville (Los Angeles) to become residents of Las Vegas. Betty became active in B'nai B'rith and other organizations and while she and Julie Mold were selling raffle tickets at Caesars Palace, they were thrilled by a $100 donation by an unknown contributor.

Jules and Fran Laiken entertaining their very dear friends from New York city, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Finger-man.

For those of you who were unable to attend the gala dinner dance sponsored by the B'nai B'rith women, the alous "Lords" band, first place winners in the "Sounds '68" band contest. "The Lords will be appearing on the Dick Clark show during the month of January.

Program Chairman, Irwin Kishner and Shelia Shapiro, Party Chairman, stated that there would be no admittance fee and that all Jewish youth are cordially invited to attend.

prizes were won by the following: Colored T. V. set-- A Pennsylvania resident, Sewing Machine, Gloucester, Mass. resident. Diamond Drop # 1 prize, by a resident of Las Vegas named Fisher.

Not bad for just $1.00.

HAPPY HANAKUH

Lou and Lucille Mack returned from the Hawaiian Island in time to hear their son Charles Debate on the Sun Forum. Charles was one of the finalists.

Condolences to Hy Ratner on the loss of his mother. A resident of Los Angeles where internment took place.

No plans for New Year's Eve? The Jewish center social club is planning a party to be held at the Athens Supper Club. Committeewomen are Messdames Pinky Raizin, Paul Blatt and Stanley Cohen. Call Roz Sberra 870-1904 or Bev Block 735-9221 for further information.

Ruth Schiffman Olsen back in town. She has seven children 19 months to 16 years. She is a sister to Chester. Welcome back.

Carole Goldstein who has been in the hospital, is now home and doing nicely. She wishes to thank the many glas for sending get well wishes.

Jack & Lillian Lexter, Jeannie & Dave Messing are back from a most wonderful vacation, which was spent on a luxurious yacht anchored in San Juan and then went sailing around the surrounding waters. They visited St. Thomas too. Good to associate with rich people, eh?

Etta & Larry Harmell voted the King & Queen of the B'nai B'rith auxiliary. Other contestants were Sol & Ellen Bromberg (she is a past president, but not of the Las Vegas Chapter), Elsie & Les Goldring (Elsie gets younger every year and looks just sensational). The Harmells won a week end at La Costa, Calif. and in spite of just one couple winning all others are still Kings and Queens.

That was a happy gathering at the swank Four Fountains restaurant to honor one of Frances's foremost composers, in Vegas to witness final rehearsals of his music in Fred Apar's new Casino do Paris show at Dunes. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. George Goregian, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Maghakian, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Sarkission and Mr. and Mrs. Mario Bua, along with the pretty Mrs. Apar.

HAPPY HANAKUH

Moe Dalitz, Stardust executive, was the recipient of a large gleaming football shaped trophy in behalf of his efforts in promoting the NSU (Nevada Southern University) Football Foundation Banquet a success. This will be the first time that the University in fabulous Las Vegas will have a football team.

HAPPY HANAKUH

The Brookmans and Schafers are raving about their experience on the last voyage of the Queen Mary. The Las Vegas boarded the ship in Acapulco for the five day trip to Long Beach.
