

OF THE STARS

words but he notices everything in and around the hotel. Some say that he covers many thousands of steps a day which sometimes means 15 to 16 hours per day.

He is indifferent about clothes. If he has his wish it would be slacks and sport shirt as his favorites. He wears a white shirt only because he has to.

The Gilberts have two children Sandy, 31 and Brenda 28, and a grandson David who is 4 1/2 years old. When David visits the Gilberts, David is the boss.

Gil's hobby is fishing. He tees off as often as possible which is at least twice weekly.

He was instrumental in forming the Casino Center and Downtown Improvement Association. He was, for many years, a potentate of the El Malaikah Temple of Shrine, a member of the Chamber of Commerce, and for many years has been an active support of the Las Vegas Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Gil is a perfectionist who makes unrelenting demands upon himself. He is filled with a driving energy. ("There is never enough hours to get everything done.")

His son Sandy, is employed with his dad in charge of management during his dad's absence. Sandy takes care of the slots, games, etc.

Gil is a life member City of Hope; active in Shrine Clubs of Glendale, Order of Quetzalcoatl; the Mexican Shrine; the Los Cerritos Lodge of Masons in Long Beach and the Lakewood California Shrine Club. Here in Las Vegas he is very active in the Daylite Lodge of Masons.

He is one of the most civic-minded citizens in our town and one of its best boosters.

The vast majority of those working with him enjoy their work and he says ("I enjoy every minute of my working hours at Milton Prell's AL-ADDIN HOTEL.

He is a perfect host, a perfect boss and a perfect neighbor. In short Gil Gilbert is one of the citizens who make Las Vegas a perfect city.
