Jewish Yough Adults of Reno
 by Jan Parker
 On Saturday evening, November 18 former Ambassador R. Borden Reames and his wife were the guests at the monthly meeting of the Jewish Young Adults of Reno. The meeting was hosted by David and Judy Ginsburg at their home. Chairman Steve Parker introduced the Ambassador -- a man who has served our country with distinction in Europe, Asia and Africa. A question and answer period followed during which the Ambassador elaborated on the recent controversial article in Look magazine on how American indifference to the Nazi murders of the Jews during the war aided Germany and for which the Ambassador was partially blamed. He described it as distorted and out of context. He also spoke of his own internment in Germany and of a briefing by Abba Eban before serving in Syria.

 Ambassador Reams is a witty, articulate and charming speaker.
 Next meeting will be strictly social, December 16 at 8:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Havas.

Inter-Faith Youth Group.
 by Penni Matakkin
 On Sunday October 15, there was an inter-faith meeting of high school youths. Two members from most of the churches in Reno were present to discuss a possible youth group plan for all denominations. The people seemed quite enthusiastic about this idea of an inter-faith youth group.
 The whole purpose of these meetings and activities is to bind Christians and Jews by sharing common interests with each other.

The Temple in the Community
 a) "The Mariners" Young Adult Group from St. John's Presbyterian Church, some 40 individuals, joined us for Services on Friday, December 2. An "Ask the Rabbi" session followed the Oneg refreshments.
 b) The Rabbi lectures to the World Religious Course at the University of Nevada Philosophy Department.
 c) Gil Sutton leads a regular group of our Temple members to the National Conference of Christians and Jews, of which "our" Senator James Slattery is Chairman.
 d) The Sacramento United Synagogue Youth returned a group visit to our Temple Youth during the last week-
