Talk about smart off-springs. Blanche & Sig Stein are two parents who should be very proud of their son and daughter - in - law. Son Fred and his wife Claudia recently returned from South America where they were doing work with the Peace Corps for two years. Coincidentally, Dr. Mason is now doing work with exchange students from the country of Columbia. Fred is now in the University of Indiana working for his Doctorate in Chemical Physics (he bypassed the master degree) while wife Claudia is working for her Masters in Linguistics. Isn't this something! Incidentally Fred is a graduate of Western High School.

Jeannie Kronberg spent a most pleasant week end with parents Lillian and Henry.
