I Love," "Matchmaker, Matchmaker," "The Life," "Sunrise, Sunset," "If I Were A Rich Man," "Now I Have Everything," and "Do You Love Me."

The cast is the closest to perfection. The singing and dancing were excellent. You'll go wild over Bikel (Tevya); an actor, folksinger, guitarist, author, lecturer, photographer, politician, linguist and raconteur.

This man with all those remarkable talents is the spell-binding. I'm certain that you'll agree when you see it sometimes within the next six months of the play's stand.

Dolores Wilson (Goldie) who plays the second lead has a beautiful singing voice. She was born in Philadelphia and made her debut at the Metropolitan Opera in 1954.

Other stars include Kathleen Noser (Tzeitel), Paul Lipson (Lazar Wolf), Royce Lenelle (Hodel), Joseph Masiel (Perchik) Lois Zetter (Yenta), Stanley Sobel (Motel), Marshal Meyers, (Chava), Keith Caporal (Fyedka) Fye Finkel (Mordcha), Baruch Lumet (Rabbi) and Clarence Hoffman (Constable).

The sensational musical, was created by Jerome Robbins, known for "Porgy and Bess," "Westside Story," and "Oklahoma." Show people are saying the "Fiddler on the Roof" is the most successful Broadway production since "My Fair Lady."

Winning many awards "Fiddler" received nine Tony statues for the "best musical" and the New York Drama Critic's Award.

Coming out of Caesars Palace on opening night I overheard an elderly man telling his wife: "This show made me proud of being a Jew."

Me too!

DOUG

Today's 'Profile' goes to the youngest and yet one of the most aggressive persons we've met in a long time. We refer to handsome and well groomed Doug DeSure, at the tender age of 34, is already a successful realtor. By "youngest", we mean he is the youngest person we've written about thus far.

Doug was born at Canton, Ohio, on October 9, 1934 and moved with his parents Al and Hilda DeSure to San Diego in 1940.

He attended the Army and Navy Military Academy at Carlsbad, California.

His first dollar earned was when he sold clothes on the road, traveling many miles around the state ("at the stage of the game he became a classy dresser").

Being the only son, Doug and his father, Al DeSure went into the real estate business in 1953.

One of the highlights of his real estate venture was when he sold a location to a discount business called 'Unimart Inc.' in 1957 and later went to work for the company opening 9 stores within 3 1/2 years. He unenthusiastically indulges in setting up exercises when he thinks about it. He is predictable and then, suddenly, he'll do something unpredictable.

He believes the simple philosophy of at least five years in preparation and study before one could practice in his chosen profession.

On January 9th of 1955 Doug married the attractive Beverly Mash. They have two beautiful and healthy children; Denise, 11 and David 7.

The DeSures have a beautiful home at 1821 Oakey, which has all the comforts, including a swimming pool. He likes to dress: ("clothes makes the man"). He looks good in those turtle neck sweaters.

He continuously wears a smile, since his ambition is to be happy along with his family.

Doug is a member of the Temple Beth Shalom, Shriners, Nellis Lodge of the Masons and Saints & Sinners. He appreciates Sam Landy's magnificent job as a jester.

Doug is six feet tall and weighs 220 ("he keeps promising himself and Beverly to go on that diet.") He has
