

Only in Vegas

By
Helene Stadler

Condolences, and so sorry to hear about the passing of Sophie Katzman's step father. Sophie immediately left for New York City to be with her mother.

Want a car? Have lucky Howie Engle buy your ticket (your money) on a car raffle and you can bet you will win it. Howie, who is a Dunes

Hotel executive purchased three tickets gave one to Dave Goldstein and George Duckworth and George won it. Last year Dave Goldstein purchased two tickets gave one to Major Riddle and Major won the car. So you see, the lucky ticket purchasers are at the Dunes.

Get well wishes to Tony

Grasso and Dave Messing, both are home. Please no telephone calls. Cards are acceptable.

The ending of the year 1967 hasn't been to pleasant. There is so much illness that it saddens one. Dave Sirota, husband of a dear friend, died suddenly which saddened me greatly. Dave has been a resident of Las Vegas for over 30 years. He is survived by his wife Sylvia, daughter Kathy, son LeRoy and two grandchildren. His mother, brother and two sisters all residing in Los Angeles, Calif. Internment took place in Los Angeles, God Rest His Soul.

Actor Tony Conkle and his glamorous G.F. Toby, gave Las Vegas some class over the New Year weekend taking in the Rickles extravaganza at the Sahara, Sammy Davis at the Sands and of course, "Fiddler" at Caesars Palace. Nice people -- come again.

Hope everyone has a most wonderful year with GOOD HEALTH prevailing.

We wonder if all you gals know that Regina's House of Fashion is being operated by everyone's pal, Regina Whe-
