

LETTERS

Dear Mr. Tell:

We have your article in your paper about John. It has made his dad and me very happy. We'll be looking for the pleasure of meeting you sometime soon.

I am very confident John will never forget his loyal friends and will always have happy memories of Las Vegas.

We are hoping and praying that he and his family will adjust to life in Carson City.

Thank you again and with our good wishes to you.

Sincerely
Nellie Code Mowbray

(ED. NOTE: Most of our readers will gather this letter was from the wonderful parents of our outstanding Justice John Mowbray, recently appointed to Supreme Court.)

Dear Jack:

My Mother and Father tell me that you are sending them the Las Vegas Israelite, which they enjoy immensely. Jack, this is just another generous expression on your part of your graciousness and thoughtfulness to others, and particularly to me and my family, for which I shall always be grateful.

May I take this opportunity at the commencement of the New Year, to wish you a happy, blessed and prosperous one, now and for many years to come.

My warmest personal regards to you.

Fraternally,
John Mowbray

Dear Jack,

Your thoughtfulness in sending the Southern Nevada Human Relations Commission a copy of the Las Vegas ISRAELITE each week is deeply appreciated.

Please know that we keep a permanent file of the issues for reference purposes.

Your "Tell Tales" are a "first" and a "must" in my reading.

Your concern with inter-group community matters actively promotes our efforts for better human relations exchanges here in Southern Nevada.

Thank you for your awareness as to our reading needs without our having requested it. Our warmest good wishes to you and Bea.

Cordially,
Michael Dawson
(Exec. Sec.)

Dear Tell Family:

Thanks to Mrs. Tell's words of encouragement I kept trying until I got a job at a L.A. radio station. It is the best of jobs at KBBQ and now I am getting my Israelite in the mail once again.

God Bless the Tell Family

Dear Jack:

I did want you personally to know how much I appreciated the exceptionally fine article you did on me.

I believe it probably is one of the finest profiles ever done on me, and I am somewhat amazed at how you were able to weave that much from our luncheon meeting.

Thanks again, and please accept my best wishes for a prosperous New Year.

Sincerely,
Ed Fike

NEW YORK (WNS) -- A New York rabbi who returned from a visit to the Soviet Union two weeks ago, reported here Tuesday evening that "in the entire city of Leningrad, there now remains only one synagogue to serve 300,000 Jews." He also said that the last known private minyan, held as a consequence of the synagogue shut-downs, was forcibly closed by Soviet authorities in Leningrad a few months ago.
