

Only in Vegas

By Helene Stadler

New Temple Members who affiliated during the calendar year 1967 will be officially welcomed into the Temple family at special Services next Friday evening, January 26.

Temple Sisterhood will host the special Oneg Shabbat refreshments in the Social Hall, which will follow the services. Everyone is cordially invited.

Get well wishes to Sam Goodman, who is seriously ill at Sunrise Hospital, send cards, Sam and his wife Rae have been long time residents of Las Vegas.

Buddy Hackett tells Sahara showroom audiences to eat at Pat's Chinese Kitchen. That's where you'll find Buddy lotsa nights for a stand-up snack before and between shows.

Send Irv Fields a "get well" at Sunrise. He's recuperating from a sudden heart attack.

SINGLE ADULTS MEET

The Jewish Single Adults of Las Vegas will hold their next social get-together at a meeting and dance on Tuesday evening, January 23, at 8:00 p.m. in the Danny Kolod Youth House of Temple Beth Shalom.

Clara Wilson, president of the group invites all Jewish single adults to attend and become identified with this newly organized group. After a short business meeting there will be dancing for the balance of the evening. Refreshments will be served.

Interested persons are invited to contact Mrs. Wilson at 735-7316 or to call the Temple office at 384-5070.

passed away peacefully after a long illness. He leaves his widow Fay, two sons William and Lawrence and six Grandchildren. Internment took place in Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Jimmy (Charlotte) Hill, mourning the loss of her mother, who was accidentally burned in a fire in her apartment at the Park Arms. Katherine Gillman was a resident of Las Vegas for quite some time. Condolences.

Adele Fox accidentally fell and had to undergo back surgery. She is now home, but has to take it easy. Do drop in to see her.

Get well wishes Will Schwartz who is in the Sunrise Hospital, sure hope he gets home soon.

Our condolences to Hickey Rabin, Sands Executive, who is mourning the loss of his mother.

Among the many women who assisted Jean Levy, Mailbag chairman, in sending March of Dimes envelopes were: Mes: Roy Long, Phillip Morgolies, Gabriel Brown, Burt Mold, Max Fink, Harry Rubin, William Schwartz, (Co-Chairman) Ben Golden, Ben Fullman, Henry Kronberg, Hy Ratner, Louis Garbern, Larry Harmell, Maury Spencer, Sara Agron, Helene Stadler, Shirley Kravitz. A job well done.

Curls, curls and more curls will be worn by the smart women this coming season and so why not have the beauticians at Zello's show you how becoming you can be with CURLS, CURLS, CURLS.
