No Truth To GOP Reports

WASHINGTON (WNS) Sharp denial of reports that the recent Texas talks between President Johnson and Prime Minister Levi Eshkol of Israel were tied to the war in Viet Nam and that the Israeli Prime Minister at the behest of the President sought to influence American Jewish leaders on the war issue was made here by Israeli officials who termed the charge unfounded and absurd.

"It is inconceivable," these officials said, "that the Israel Government would handle matters of vital importance to the security of its people on such a basis. The Prime Minister would clearly limit to an exposition of Israel's own problems

Eshkol Tour Very Helpful

TEL AVIV (WNS) Prime Minister Levi Eshkol, returning from a tour that brought him to the United States, Canada and England, declared that his visits to those countries were "very worthwhile, important and helpful" though "we did not always receive a positive reply to what we said or what we wanted."

To understand what has been achieved in the talks with President Johnson and British Prime Minister Harold Wilson, Mr. Eshkol said, one must read the official communiques "between the lines," adding "we cannot complain and the future will prove it." The Prime Minister was obviously reluctant to speak publicly about his diplomatic junket until he reports to his Cabinet.

On his departure from London, Mr. Eshkol told newsmen that the 20-year ban on Israeli shipping was "long enough and we are not prepared to tolerate such a ban any longer," that Israel has not despaired of peace but "will not be satisfied with pious and obscure promises," that Israel would not accept supervision of her frontiers and that Israel will not indefinitely tolerate Arab terrorism and sabotage on her territory.

Happy Birthday to Us

The Las Vegas Israelite commences its fourth year with this edition.

Three years ago, they laughed when we sat down at the typewriter. One hundred, fifty six weeks later some are still laughing, but with "Yoshikas." It wasn't easy. There were times we had no idea where the next split infinitive was coming from, but somehow, always when it seemed all was lost, up popped a saver. That old "darkness before the dawn" worked overtime with the Israelite. The road was rough, the path was crooked and the fangs of the green-eyed monsters struck deep. But we managed to survive.

It isn't that we're complaining. We enjoyed every minute of it, and while we are by no means out into

A Newspaper Is Born

You see, ladies and gentlemen, a newspaper is a living, breathing, vital organ of animation in a community. It has heart. It has temperament. It must be treated with care during pregnancy. Delivery at birth requires all the obstetric know-how of a publication practitioner.

During infancy a newspaper must be nursed carefully to give it a strong, basic foundation. As a child it must be fed proper features and trained to obey the printed rules of society. It must be reared with editorial direction to gain respect from readers. If, at maturity, it is considered a member of every family and an integral part of the local scene, to be praised or scolded as the occasion deems fit, then, and only then do you have a newspaper.

The Las Vegas Israelite is a newspaper in every sense. This paper will be maintained at a high level, in keeping with the standards of those who deserve the best. Its goal is a well informed, stimulated readership.

The purpose of the Israelite is serve the welfare and growth of the Jewish community.

Toward these aims Jack Tell's Las Vegas Israelite is dedicated.

The above was printed exactly three years ago, Jan. 29, 1965, in the very first issue of the Las Vegas Israelite. After re-reading it very carefully now, this writer states, with sincerest conviction, the Las Vegas Israelite has fulfilled every pledge it has made from the very beginning to the Jewish Community of Nevada.

If there are any disputes to this claim, the pages of this paper are, as they always have been, open for comment from readers.

Thank you, from the bottom of our heart, for your past and continued support.
