Sammy Cohen (Santa Anita Race Book) has the biggest heart when it comes to dishing out the money. If the cause is worthy (I don't know what isn't as far as Sammy is concerned) Sammy gives, gives and gives again. Much of his donations are not write remarkable man who serves outstanding food, you are 100 per cent accurate. And wonder of wonders, the highest priced dish on the menu is Carlo Bombara Special Dinner at $5.95, except of course, Lobster Fra Diavolo, which costs $40 for four persons. For the lobsters, live, Bombara style, you must give one week's notice. They are flown specially for you from Maine. They're probably worth waiting for at that.

MR. BOMBARA

There you have it folks, CARLO'S Gourmet Room, open five to midnight, Reservations are a must. He turns away more than he serves nightly, and he can't serve too many because he tastes everything he serves to be certain it is just right. Oh yes, it is upstairs at the Nevada Club on Fremont Street.

McDONALD'S

McDonald's Restaurants of Las Vegas today announced - thru its advertising agency, Robert Fenton Advertising, Inc. - plans for Las Vegas' first full-fledged young people's theater and revealed production schedules for May thru Sept. programs.

The new playhouse group will present full length historical dramas, musical comedies and children's fantasies. Performances are tentatively scheduled for weekends only.

The McDonald's Young People's Theater will be under the direction of Brodie Graves - a former NSU student and currently appearing in the Desert Inn production of "Tom Jones." Graves' new production company, Hephallump Enterprises, will hold open auditions for each play as announced. The first production scheduled, according to Graves, will be "The Legends of Buffalo Bill", with premiere and benefit performances in May.

Location of the playhouse, ticket and performance information, and audition dates will be announced shortly.

off's either. That is where the difference between Sammy and other business men in town, stops. So to you Sammy, good health always and may you continue to be the understanding person you are, forever and ever. (ED NOTE: Amen, J.T.)

APRIL IS SPRING CLEANUP MONTH

The Greater Las Vegas area is fast becoming the glitter capital of the world. But in the eyes of many of it's residents and people who call this their home, it is being transformed into the litter capital of the world. We are asking for the cooperation of all business people and residents in the area to put forth the effort required to maintain their property and business' in a manner that would compliment our area and continue its success in becoming one of the outstanding resort areas in the world.

Very truly yours,

Good luck to Hank and Barbara Greenspun on the anticipated enlargement of the Sun Newspaper buildings. Ground was broken for another building that will incorporate the entire staff, instead of using two locations.
