SILVER NUGGET STAR HELD OVER

BILLY DARE, RIGHT, BRIGHT, YOUNG, NEW SINGING SENSATION IN THE SILVER SLIPPER LOUNGE WAS DESCRIBED AS A COMBINATION OF AL JOLSON, PHIL HARRIS AND ALICE FAYE, WHEN, OF COURSE WE MEANT FRANCES FAYE. SO SORRY. AT LEFT IS BILLY'S MANAGER MIKE TELL, WHO DISCOVERED THE DYNAMIC ENTERTAINER IN A SMALL L.A. CLUB. DARE IS BEING HELD OVER INDEFINITELY.

LONDON AT TROP

Julie London, motion picture, television and recording star, returns to the $1-million Blue Room at Hotel Tropicana Apr. 12 for a three-week engagement.

"Cry Me A River," the scintillating star's first big hit song, brought her TV appearances with Perry Como, Steve Allen and Ed Sullivan. She was then offered a featured role with Jose Ferrer in the motion picture "The Great Man." She has starred in 16 pictures and, between films, manages a consistent flow of hits for Liberty Records.

With Miss London are comedian Lou Alexander and popular Si Zentner, whose band is rated second in the Playboy Magazine national listing.

Alexander, fresh from New York appearances, has been acclaimed by eastern reviewers as, "a young comedian now ready for the big time."

Augmenting the burst of Blue Room entertainment will be Maynard Sloate's "Today U.S.A.," a timely fast-moving musical revue, which has been held over until May 2. The revue features a crop of youthful talent, never exposed to Las Vegas audiences before, that could return to star spots next time around.

The King Sisters, Alvino Rey and Peddie and Fry are now set for the Blue Room May 3-23.
