

SHOWCAST OF THE STARS

ces between schools and teachers in Los Angeles. In 1965 and 1966 he was President of the Association of Temple Administrators of California.

His work encompasses total administration of the Temple Beth Shalom affairs. He is most happy that the Temple's membership has now grown to more than 600. His goal is 1000 by 1970, and the Israelite pledges to help Leo reach his goal. Mrs. Wilner is a dogooder. She belongs to many womens groups and takes leadership in many charitable activities.

He claims that Mildred is too sweet to ever hurt anyone's feelings. ("I think she would say that she didn't like something as well as something else, but she will never be offensive.")

a pack of filter cigarettes per day. His favorite food is anything his Mildred cooks.

In the summer time he must have a window open. In the winter he wears pajamas, trousers and jacket, when sleeping. He hasn't any trouble falling asleep. He has been informed that he snores gently.

Leo loves his work at the Temple and on his day off he can be seen visiting there and for many hours at a time. He is a hard and dilligent worker and expects his co-workers to be the same. He is liked and respected by all employed at the Temple and he is an enormous respector of the other persons' talents, too.

He is a kind and considerate person. He seldom becomes angry and loves every hour and day that he works. He is conservative in all his clothes. Avoids any suggestions of flashiness.

He likes all sports football, baseball, handball and baseball - in school he played 'em all.

He always strives to be a gentleman and a credit to our community. If you haven't met LEO A MILNER do so right away. Let this story be your introduction. Go over and say hello in person. You are in for a treat.

ARTIST FABIAN IN VEGAS

Las Vegas is honored by the visit of a renowned artist and portrait painter by the name of Felix Fabian. He visited with a friend whom he hasn't seen for a number of years, and like our town so much he decided to stay awhile. Felix has painted portraits of princess Margaret, Churchill, General Eisenhower, Sammie Davis, Geraldine Chaplain, The Shah of Persia, and many others to numerous to mention. Felix also has studios in Paris, Buenos Aires, London, Rome and Poland.

If interested, you can contact Felix at the Blair House. This Artist has had many one man showings and he does have some paintings with him which can be seen and purchased. Felix was most generous in offering a portrait painting as a door prize at the Sisterhood luncheon, and the lucky winner was Mrs. Al Freeman.
