Passover Message

RABBI ISRAEL MILLER
Chairman, American Zionist Council

Passover, which marks the triumph of the first mass struggle for freedom and human equality, serves this year as a resounding reminder that after thirty-one centuries the same tyrannical forces which had enslaved the Jewish people are still rampant. Once again the Jewish people are engaged in a desperate struggle for their freedom and security against even mightier tyrants than Pharaoh of old; as the Haggadah tells us "...in every generation there are those who rise against us to destroy us".

Freedom for all humanity is at stake in the current difficulties assailing the world community - not only freedom for the Jewish people. As in the past the Jews are a sensitive seismograph recording the tremors which eventually engulf all mankind. The attack by the Polish authorities upon "Zionists" is an attack upon freedom for all. The religious and cultural disabilities to which Soviet Jewry continues to be subjected are an attack upon freedom for all. The incarceration of the Jewish residents in Egypt, Syria and Iraq diminished the freedom of all.

It is freedom which is at stake in Israel today. The State of Israel, the fulfillment of two thousand years of incessant struggle and yearning, has been under siege since its creation twenty years ago. The modern Pharaohs are committed not merely to the destruction and the annihilation of its valiant citizens but to the eradication of the spiritual values upon which Israel is based.

But with the help of the Jewish people and men of good will everywhere, the designs of the aggressors will be frustrated. In keeping with the admonition of our sages that "In every generation one must look upon himself as if he personally had come forth from Egypt", it is incumbent upon every conscientious Jew to join in the effort for Israel's security and freedom.

NEW YORK (WNS) A call upon all candidates for the Presidency of the United States to define their positions on Israel and peace in the Middle East was sounded here by Jacques Torczyner, president of the Zionist Organization of America.

NEW ORLEANS (WNS) Label A. Katz has resigned from the New Orleans Jewish Community Center in protest against its adoption of a quota membership policy fixing the number of non-Jewish admission to twenty percent. Mr. Katz called the quota "un-Jewish, un-American and undemocratic." In a statement, the former B'nai B'rith president said that "other Jewish community centers covertly engage in the same practice, but no Jewish community center has been so bold as to state it so boldly."

NEW YORK (WNS) The Polish press far from halting its denunciation of Zionists as the alleged instigators of the student demonstrations, has intensified the campaign to a point where it now speaks of Jews as well as of Zionists.

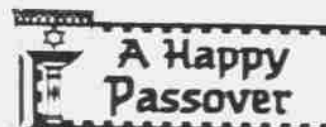

GROSSINGERS, N.Y. (WNS) The Zionist Organization of America, at a meeting here of its national executive committee, reaffirmed its "long held view" in favor of continuance of the existing system of separate Zionist groups.

NEW YORK (WNS) A proposal that President Johnson offer himself as mediator between Israel and Jordan was projected here by the National Governing Council of the American Jewish Congress. Under the proposal, the President would summon Premier Levi Eshkol of Israel and King Hussein of Jordan for peace talks aboard the flagship of the U. S. Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.
