McDONALD'S PLAYHOUSE PRESENTS

"BUFFALO BILL" MAY 11-18-25.

McDonald's Restaurants unique new entertainment facility for young audiences, the McDonald's Playhouse, announced its first production "The Legend of Buffalo Bill" to be held at the Teen-beat Building, 4416 Paradise Road.

The new playhouse, Las Vegas' first full-fledged young people's theater will present full length historical dramas, musical comedies and children's fantasies.

Performance schedule will be two performances each Saturday one at 11:00 a.m. and one at 1:00 p.m. starting May 11. Advance tickets, reservations and group rate information is available by calling Hephallump Enterprises at 384-8225. Hephallump Enterprises is the corporate name of the new childrens plays production company headed by former NSU student and currently one of the featured stars of "Tom Jones" at the Desert Inn, Brodie Graves. Aurald Harris' play, "Buffalo Bill" said Graves is for "young audiences" not necessarily children. It covers the early years of the frontiersman, the start of the Pony Express, and his first meeting with Wild Bill Hickok and the infamous Yellow Hand.

RONALD McDONALD makes a dubious Director for McDonald's Playhouse stars Mikki Sharait and Wayne Albritton—opening May 11 in "The Legend of Buffalo Bill." The new young people's theater will have two performances each Saturday at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. Tickets and reservations by calling 384-8225.
