My but May is a busy month for birthdays as you can see. Greetings To: Dorothy Anholtzer, Sara Feldman, Edith Govendo, Sheila Shapiro, Mabel Weber, Florence Kanter, Sylvia Koch, Marilyn Moskowitz, Lily Phillips, Ann Pink, Charlene Rubin, Eleanore Osheroff, Sally Schneider, Helen Snure, Ida Star Blanche Stein, Kathy Strotta, Jackie Heller, Mollie Pollin, Arlene Mack, Susan Baller, Louise Nosanchuck and Al Adler.

Good Luck to Bill Wolf who is now a stock broker for Eastman Dillon. Bill and his wife Sheila have been residents of Las Vegas for the past seven years. They have two children Karen age 12 and Kenny age 7. New York City was their former home.

Helen and Herman Heimberg spent a most joyous time in Paso Robles celebrating the 80th birth day of Helen's mother, Stella Schwartz. All of Stella's children attended (seven in all) and many of the brothers and sisters saw each other for the first time in 36 years. Isn't that something. The children and their families came from Cleveland, San Diego, Sepulveda and San Francisco. This was a four generation gathering. One grandson, Sam Heimberg returned from Japan and James Heimberg who is in the U.S. Service stationed in Alaska called to wish his grandma a happy birthday, this had to be the highlight of this occasion. May I add my wishes to you Stella, that you celebrate your 81st birthday with as much pleasure and good health.

Some of the gals that worked on the Ambassadors Ball committee are: Mesdames Mel Shapiro, Morton Saiger, Martin Nathenson, J. Quinn, L. Shafer, Clara Dase, Alvin Benedict, Paul Wolfson, Will Schwartz, and George Brookman, there are others too and they will be mentioned in a later column.

Back from the Hawaiian Islands are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sperling and Dr. and Mrs. Jerome Schwartz.

Sara Goldberg visiting in town, being entertained by her good friends. Hope to see you before you return to Portland, Sarah. Call me.

Mrs. Jerry Rubin entertained at lunch the future bride Lois Kanter and the former Ricki Sadure who is now a resident of Calif.

ONE WEEK OLD
Michael Todd Sanzo is coming along fine. He gained a trifle, takes about an ounce more of his formula. He's a perfect gentleman, except during his daily bath. The big problem facing his parents and foster parents, is whether he is strong and healthy enough for circumcision. This will be decided during the upcoming week.

Rumors concerning the Las Vegas Ice Palace are stilled with report of following changes in the physical operation: Norman Mann is president; Gene Cherkas is assistant to president; and Bill Brown is rink manager. The Palace is committed to an imaginative program, with activities aimed at civic activities keyed for National recognition. 'Nuff said- - -

You've got to take advantage of the free potato pancake (Kugel) being offered this week at the new Stage Door Deli in the Somerset Market on Convention Center Drive. Dena Foosaner cooks Jewish dishes like you haven't tasted since those Friday nights at your mother's house. If you agree, let Jack Tell know about it.

Benay Goldwasser, who the Tells knew, it seems like only yesterday, as a gorgeous, darling, pretty little girl, back in North Bergen, N. J. and Forrest Hills, became engaged to Michael Goldstein. The Goldwassers are the most sincere, dedicated family it has been our pleasure to know.

Condolences to Maxine Eplan on the loss of her Husband Harry. They have been residents of Las Vegas for the past 15 years.

AMONG TOP FUND RAISERS OF TEMPLE BETH SHOLOM SISTERHOOD HONORED AT FRENCH LUNCHEON IN STARDUST'S INTERNATIONAL ROOM WERE KAY WALTERSTEIN, WHO RECEIVED THE DOROTHY ENTRATTER SERVICE AWARD, AND ETTA HARMELL, ONE OF THE MOST DEDICATED MEMBERS OF OUR FAITH.
