LETTERS

Dear Mr. Tell:
Thank you so very much for sending me your paper "The Las Vegas Israelite." I enjoy reading it.

I am enclosing a copy of our Temple bulletin as a reciprocal gesture.

Gratefully yours,
Rabbi M. Robert Syme
Temple Israel, Detroit

(Editors' note: Thank you Rabbi for your most considerate letter, and your bulletin, an intelligent, professional publication, J.T.)

Dear Mr. Tell:
I, too, am a Rabbi who receives your newspaper. And I wish to begin by congratulating you and telling you how delightful and interesting it is. You are doing a wonderful job - keep it up. I am writing you this letter to ask you a question and perhaps even a favor, if at all possible. My wife and I hope to have a short vacation and to visit Las Vegas from Thursday, July 11th through Sunday, July 14th or Monday July 15th. We really don't know of a good place to stay, but I suppose any hotel is just as good as another. I hope to take in as many shows as I possibly can, and with God's help I'll call you up just to say 'hello' to you.

Shalom Uvracha,
Rabbi Hershel Brooks
(Savannah, Georgia)
(ED. NOTE: Thanks for the kind words, Rabbi. We'll make your stay in Las Vegas as pleasant as possible, J.T.)

Dear Jack:
Please accept our heartfelt thanks for the wonderful coverage which you gave the dedication ceremony of the "Harry Levy Gardens." Fearful of sounding immodest I was greatly pleased with your most highly complimentary story in which you seemingly gave almost full credit to me for the efforts expended by our Housing Authority Commissioners and staff in behalf of our senior citizens, to try to lighten the heavy load which some of them must carry in their declining years.

I personally feel amply rewarded in knowing that I have been able to contribute my small share in making 295 families of our elderly citizens a lot more pleasant in the twilight of their lives.

Jeanne and I extend to you and yours our best for your continued success, and above all, good health to you and yours so that you may continue to fill the void, which prior to the advent of the Israelite, was so prevalent in our Jewish Community.

Sincerely,
Harry Levy
P.S. I believe I can claim credit as one of your first subscribers and I shall continue as long as you publish, H. L.

(ED. NOTE: Yes you are, Harry, and because of civic-minded citizens like yourself, we were able to bring the Israelite into being. We hope to maintain its level to your satisfaction for as long as you live, at least another fifty years. JT)

Dear Bea:
On behalf of the Clark County Mental Health Association and Kovell Inc., may we take this opportunity to thank you and your fine publication, the Las Vegas Israelite, for the cooperation and assistance that you gave so generously in helping to publicize May as National Mental Health month.

Sincerely,
Phyllis Kirkwood,
Publicity
Lois Sagel,
Media.
