

EBAN TELLS ZIONISTS OF ISRAEL'S SINCERITY

JERUSALEM (WNS) Foreign Minister Abba Eban, addressing the 27th World Zionist Congress declared that Israel was searching for contacts with the Arab states through many channels.

At the same time the Foreign Minister reiterated that Israel was seeking to replace the present cease-fire arrangement with freely negotiated peace agreements, adding that other arrangements cannot serve as a substitute for a formal peace treaty. The doctrine of Israeli "withdrawal without peace," he said, is untenable.

Meanwhile postponement of the closing of the Congress has brought no solution to the problem of finding a successor to Dr. Nahum Goldmann as president of the World Zionist Organization. With Dr. Goldmann definitely out of the picture, the final days of the Congress may see feverish activity either to reach agreement on a successor or to leave the choice of a next president in the hands of the next World Zionist Actions Committee. However, there is strong resistance to the idea of leaving the presidency vacant, and the idea of empowering the Actions committee to select a president may be resorted to only in the event of a deadlock over candidates. One of the potential candidates is

As the plenary sessions were nearing conclusion, corridors and committee rooms were filled with debate over the composition of the Zionist executive.

As the delegates to the Congress were still pondering the significance and implication's of the announced government decision to take over the major functions of the Jewish Agency, Premier Levi Eshkol issued a letter of clarification to the effect that needy immigrants and refugees would continue to be the agency's responsibility. The wording of the letter, addressed to the Jewish Agency executive, was unanimously approved at a Cabinet meeting. In the opinion of many Congress delegates, the clarification has done much to alleviate their previously expressed anxieties about the future of fund-raising activities in behalf of Israel.

It was understood that in establishing the new Ministry of Absorption, its functions and responsibilities will be determined with due regard to the provisions of the letter of clarification. With that in view, a joint committee of the government and the Jewish Agency are to meet soon to work out the details.

At the same time it was disclosed Premier Levi Eshkol at a Cabinet meeting formally proposed Minister of Labor Yigal Allon as his Deputy Premier and Minister of Immigration. With Labor party leadership backing the appointment, it appears that the Cabinet will approve the appointment though not without much debate.
