GORDON

Everyone has a local tele- vision favorite, including us. In our household it is a must to listen in our favorite local TV personality - GORDON FINK WHO AP- PEARS WITH ACESPORTS- CASTER G. L. VITTO every Thursday night at 5:17 on channel 13.

Gordon is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Fink and resides with his parents at 1761 Seneca Lane.

He is completely objective about himself as a sports- caster. He has a quick ear and eye for what's going on. ("I keep up with the latest trends concerning baseball, football and basketball no matter where I am. You sim- ply must keep yourself aware.")

He was born in Detroit, July 13, 1953. Three years later the family moved to Toledo, Ohio and then another move to (the best city of 'em all) Las Vegas in 1963.

Last May Gordon grad- uated from the William Orr Jr. High School and this fall he enters the Valley High School. Thus far his mind is not set as to what profes- sion he will follow but ("At my age I don't want to make plans and then be dis- appointed.")

He is a member of the Na- tional Junior Honor Society.

He weighs 103 pounds, is five feet, one inch tall, hand- some, with dark hair and blue eyes. He is considerate of others, almost always. ("Why not, it cost nothing.") Comes September 1st he starts his 3rd year on G. L. Vitto's sports program. All his shows are live and spon- taneous. ("In most cases I have my thoughts all lined up in advance, but G. L. manages to surprise me on many occasions.")

Gordoa spends much time reading books and magazines on sports. He has a photo- graphic mind. Anything he reads he is able to recall readily.

He reaches for integrity and sincerity in friends. ("I don't care whether their par- ents are successful or fam- ous or what their profession is. That's not the important quality of a friend.")

Gordy is always well- dressed, although he claims he doesn't care about clothes and doesn't pay much atten- tion to them, he has an espe- cial fondness for sweaters.

He is a plain food eater. ("I don't go for fancy dishes. When I like a certain food, I stay with it.") His favorite foods are steak, baked pota-
