

NEW YORK - More than 1,500 high school and college students will participate this summer in Israel programs of the American Zionist Youth Foundation, according to Mr. Charles Bick, Chairman.

NEW YORK -- Sol M. Linowitz, United States Ambassador to the Organization of American States and Victor Borge, noted Danish-American entertainer, have been named co-chairmen for an American Jewish community's Salute to Denmark and Sweden next October. The Salute will commemorate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the rescue of Danish Jews from the Nazis in October, 1943. Mrs. Herbert H. Lehman will serve as honorary co-chairman.

BONN (WNS) If Israel gives its approval, Karl Hermann Knoke, a Wehrmacht officer in World War II who had never been a member of the Nazi Party, will succeed Dr. Rolf Pauls at West German's Ambassador to the Jewish State.

MEXICO CITY (WNS) The Mexican Government bestowed its highest decoration, the Aguila Azteca (Astic Eagle), on Elias Sourasky, prominent banker, Zionist and Jewish community leader, for his contributions to the Mexican school system and scientific institutions.

JERUSALEM (WNS) Two Arab youths have been detained for questioning as suspects in setting off an explosive charge which rocked downtown Jerusalem, shattering windows and scattering pedestrians in the night.

PARIS (WNS) The possibility of peace in the Middle East without a formal treaty was projected here by the Minister of the Lebanese Foreign Office.

HAIFA (WNS) Faraj Elias Beshara Abed, a twenty-two-year-old Christian Arab divinity student, was given a ten year term by the Haifa District Court following conviction on charges of spying.

JERUSALEM (WNS) After ten days of debate, during which many basic problems affecting the future of the world Zionist movement were aired, the 27th World Zionist Congress closed without electing a president of the World Zionist Organization as successor to Dr. Nahum Goldmann, who declined to succeed himself.

NEW YORK (WNS) Ambassador Yitzhak Rabin of Israel, addressing Yeshiva University's 37th Annual commencement exercises here, declared that Israel was hoping for the best and prepared for the worst. He said "peace is important to the State of Israel, but survival and the continuation of our development is even more important."

JERUSALEM (WNS) If an effort by a Reform Congregation in Tel Aviv succeeds, the Wailing Wall will be opened to mixed prayers by men and women.

JERUSALEM (WNS) Israel will not renew its fourteen-year-old trade pact with Poland when it expires this October.
